

17th international DPA conference papers published

The papers from the Data Protection Commissioners' Conference held in Copenhagen in September 1995 have recently been published by the Registertilsynet. They are in English unless stated otherwise, and include the following:

International developments

The European Directive on Data Protection - a factual description of the directive and an evaluation of the results

Dr Joachim Jacob, Federal Data Commissioner, Germany (German only)

The future perspectives from the Commission's standpoint now that the directive has been adopted
Ulf Brühann, Head of Unit, Free Circulation of Information and Data Protection, DGXV, EU, Brussels (English, French & German)

Paul André Comeau, Président of Commission d'Accès à l'Information du Québec, Canada (English & French)

Kevin O'Connor, Privacy Commissioner, Australia

Joel Reidenberg, Associate Professor of Law, Fordham University School of Law, New York, USA

Labour market and privacy

Computer systems applied to the control of activities and surveillance in the workplace: stakes and risks for the privacy of the work force

Hubert Bouchet, CNIL, France (French)

The situation in the Netherlands

Peter J. Hustinx, President of the Registration Chamber, the Netherlands

Use of medical data in the labour market - a Danish Draft Bill

Dr. Linda Nielsen, Asst Prof, Copenhagen University

Issues related to research and statistics

The Council of Europe's work drafting a recommendation on the protection of personal data collected and processed for statistical purposes

Jean-Phillipe Walter, Deputy Federal Data Protection Commissioner, Switzerland

The use of multipurpose identification numbers in the production of statistics in Denmark

Finn Spieker, Consultant, Statistics Denmark

Statistical data bases and protection of personal data

Michel May, Commissioner, CNIL, France (French)

Epidemiology and register-based research, legal and ethical considerations

Dr. Knut Borch-Johnsen, Copenhagen County Centre of Preventive Medicine, Denmark

Technological development and privacy

From footprints to electronic trails - some current issues of data protection policy

Professor Jon Bing, Norwegian Research Centre for Computers and Law, University of Oslo, Norway

Privacy and Multimedia - an inherent contradiction?

Dr Hansjürgen Gartska, Data Protection Commissioner, Berlin, Germany

Protection of privacy and basic freedom in the handling of pictures and sound

Louise Cadoux, Vice-President, CNIL, France (French)

Technologies of privacy

Marc Rotenberg, Director, EPIC, Washington, Georgetown University Law Center

Back to anonymity - Privacy Enhancing Technologies - a joint study in the Netherlands and Ontario

John J. Borking, Vice-President of the Registration Chamber, the Netherlands

Regulation of telecommunications: definition of safety standards concerning cryptography

Dr. Alexander Dix, Deputy Data Protection Commissioner, Berlin, Germany

Automation of public administration

Professor Peter Blume, University of Copenhagen, Institute of Legal Science, Denmark

Electronic Government - a UK perspective

Francis Aldhouse, UK Deputy Data Protection Registrar

Commercialisation of data collected by public authorities

Dr. Herbert Burkert, St. Gallen University, Switzerland

The increasing use and commercialisation of data collected by public authorities

David Flaherty, Information and Privacy Commissioner for British Columbia, Canada

The battle between the personal right to privacy and the commercial need to know

Anitha Bondestam, Data Inspection Board, Sweden

The increasing use and commercialisation of data collected by public authorities

Bruce Slane, Privacy Commissioner, New Zealand

Papers available from the Registertilsynet, Christians Brygge 28 4 sal, 1559 Copenhagen 5, Denmark

Telephone: +(45) 33 14 38 44 Fax: +(45) 33 13 38 43