Helsingfors, February 12, 1923.

Sir,

In accordance with instructions received from my Government, I have the honour to inform you that, on condition that it receives a corresponding statement from your Government, the Government of the R. S. F. S. Republic is prepared to exempt the Government of the Finnish Republic from stamp duty and all other taxes of any kind that are or may be levied by the competent Russian authorities in connection with the homologation or registration of the following urban real estate, including grounds and buildings: No. 39, Ekateringowski Prospect (formerly the Hotel of the Finnish Secretariat of State) at Petrograd, and No. 26, Prospect of October 25 (formerly Newski Prospect) at Petrograd, belonging to the Finnish Republic by virtue of the Note to Article 22 of the Peace Treaty concluded between the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic and the Finnish Republic at Dorpat on October 14, 1920.

I request you to be so good as to inform me whether the Finnish Government is prepared to enter into a reciprocal engagement. If such is the case, I shall presume that this Note and your reply may be regarded as effecting the arrangement in question.

I have the honour to be, etc.

Monsieur J. Vennola,
Minister for Foreign Affairs,
Helsingfors.

Monsieur le Représentant Plénipotentiaire,

In a communication dated the 12th instant, you had, under instructions from your Government, brought to my knowledge that the Government of the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic is prepared, in return for a corresponding statement, to exempt the Government of the Republic of Finland from stamp duty and all other charges, which are or will be payable to the competent Russian authorities on the homologation or registration of certain urban real estate, with grounds and buildings, viz, No. 39 Ekateringovski Prospect (formerly offices of the State Secretariat for Finland) in Petrograd, and No. 26 Prospect of October 25 (formerly Newski Prospect) in Petrograd, belonging to the Republic of Finland, in virtue of the Note to Article 22 of the Treaty of Peace concluded at Dorpat on October 14, 1920, between the Republic of Finland and the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic.

I have, therefore, the honour to inform you that, subject to reciprocity, the Government of Finland is prepared to exempt the Government of the R. S. F. S. Republic from stamp duty and all other charges on the homologation or registration of certain urban property with grounds and buildings, viz, No. 10 Etelä-Espanadinkatu in Helsingfors and No. 21 Bulevardinkatu (No. 25 Albertinkatu) in Helsingfors, belonging to the R. S. F. S. Republic in virtue of the Note to Article 22 of the Peace Treaty of Dorpat referred to above.

I have the honour to add that I regard the arrangement in question as duly concluded by your communication and by this reply to that communication.

I have the honour to be, etc.

J. H. VENNOLA.
