EMPIRE BRITANNIQUE, FRANCE, ITALIE ET JAPON

RITISH EMPIRE, FRANCE, ITALY AND JAPAN

Decision taken by the Conference of Ambassadors with regard to the Eastern frontiers of Poland. Paris, March 15, 1923.
1 Traduction. — Translation

French official text communicated by the President of the Conference of Ambassadors. The registration of this Decision took place March 31, 1923.

The British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, signatories with the United States of America as the principal Allied and Associated Powers of the Peace Treaty of Versailles,
Whereas under Article 87, paragraph 3 of the same Treaty it is for them to fix the frontiers of Poland not specified in that Treaty;
Whereas the Polish Government submitted to the Conference of Ambassadors on February 15, 1923 a request that the Powers represented thereon should make use of the rights conferred upon them by the said article;
And the Lithuanian Government for its part had previously expressed in its Note dated November 18, 1922 its desire that the said Powers should make use of the said rights;
Whereas, under Article 91 of the Peace Treaty of St. Germain-en-Laye, Austria renounced in favour of the principal Allied and Associated Powers all its rights and titles to the territories formerly belonging to the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, which, being situated without the new frontiers of Austria as described in Article 27 of that Treaty, have not yet been assigned to any other state;
Whereas it is recognised by Poland that ethnographical conditions necessitate an autonomous regime in the Eastern part of Galicia;
Whereas the Treaty concluded between the principal Allied and Associated Powers and Poland on June 28, 1919 provides in respect of all territories placed under Polish sovereignty special guarantees for racial, linguistic or religious minorities;
Whereas as regards her common frontier with Russia, Poland has entered into direct negotiations with that State with a view to determining the line of that frontier;
And whereas, as regards the frontier between Poland and Lithuania, account must be taken of the de facto situation created by the Resolution of the Council of the League of Nations dated February 3, 1923,
Have entrusted the Conference of Ambassadors with the settlement of this question.
The Conference of Ambassadors therefore:

I. Decides to recognise as the Polish frontier:

(1) With Russia:
A line drawn and delimited by agreement between the two States and on their responsibility on November 23, 1922.
