BELGRADE, March 17, 1923.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,

With reference to our conversations on January 21 last regarding the prolongation of the period within which persons who have exercised the right to opt by virtue of the Treaty of Peace may transfer their place of residence to the State for which they have opted, I have the honour to note that as a result of these conversations, the two Governments are agreed that the period laid down in the third paragraph of Article 63 of the Treaty of Peace within which transfer of residence may take place, shall be prolonged until July 26, 1926. This prolongation of the period in question shall in no way affect the rights guaranteed by the Treaty of Peace to those who have exercised the right to opt. It is, of course, understood that those who have opted enjoy no political rights in the country in which they have lost their nationality by reason of the fact that they have opted.

In asking Your Excellency to be so good as to acknowledge receipt of this Note, I am, etc.

(Signed) KOLOSSA.

To His Excellency,
M. Momtchilo NINTITCH,
Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Serb-Croat-Slovenes,
Belgrade.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,

In acknowledging receipt of your Note of March 17 last No. 92/R with reference to the prolongation of the period, laid down in the third paragraph of Article 63 of the Treaty of Peace, during which persons who have exercised the right to opt by virtue of the Treaty may transfer their place of residence, I have the honour to inform you that I am still in agreement as to what was arranged between us with regard to the prolongation until July 26, 1926 of the period in respect of which persons who have exercised the right to opt in our respective countries may transfer their place of residence. The prolongation of the period in question in no way affects the rights guaranteed by the Treaty of Peace to those who have exercised the right to opt. It is, of course, understood that those who have opted shall enjoy no political rights in the country in which they have lost their nationality by reason of the fact that they have opted.

I am, Your Excellency, etc.

(Signed) M. NINTCHITCH.

His Excellency
M. François KOLOSSA,
Envoy Extraordinary and Minister
Plenipotentiary of Hungary,
Belgrade.
