No. 751. — Convention between Finland and Norway, concerning the establishment of a conciliation commission, signed at Stockholm, June 27, 1924.

The President of the Finnish Republic and His Majesty the King of Norway, being desirous of promoting the development of the procedure of conciliation in international disputes in accordance with the spirit of the Covenant of the League of Nations, and being desirous of carrying into effect the principles laid down in the Resolution regarding the conclusion of conciliation conventions which was adopted by the Assembly of the League, on September 22, 1922, have for this purpose agreed to conclude a Convention, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries the following:

The President of the Finnish Republic:

Dr. Werner Söderhjelm, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Stockholm,

His Majesty the King of Norway:

M. Johan Herman Wollebaek, His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Stockholm, who, having been duly appointed with full powers for that purpose, have agreed upon the following articles:

Article 1.

The Contracting Parties undertake to refer to a Permanent Commission, to be appointed in the manner set forth below, for investigation and settlement by conciliation, all disputes of any nature whatever which it has not been possible to settle within reasonable time through diplomatic channels and which should, under the terms of the Statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice or of any other agreement between the Parties, be submitted either to the Permanent Court or to a Court of Arbitration.

Article 2.

When a dispute which has been referred to the Commission by one of the Parties has been brought before the Permanent Court or a Court of Arbitration by the other Party under the terms of Article 1, the Commission shall postpone its investigation of the dispute until the Permanent Court or the Court of Arbitration shall have determined the question of competence in the case.

Article 3.

The Commission shall be composed of five members. Each Party shall appoint two members, one of which may be a national of the appointing State. The fifth member, who shall act as Chairman of the Commission, shall be a national of a third State not otherwise represented on the Commission. He shall be appointed jointly by the Parties. Should the Parties be unable to agree, the Chairman shall, at the request of one of the Parties, be appointed by the President of the Permanent Court of International Justice or, should the latter be a national of one of the Contracting States, by the Vice-President of the Court.

The Commission shall be appointed within six months after ratifications of the present Convention have been exchanged.

Article 4.

The members of the Commission shall be appointed for three years. They shall be irremovable during their term of office unless the Parties agree otherwise. In the event of the death or retirement of a member, the vacancy must be filled for the remainder of his term of office within, if possible, the next two months, but in any case as soon as a dispute has been submitted to the Commission.

Article 5.

Either of the Parties may, within fifteen days after one of them has submitted a dispute to the Commission, replace one of the members whom it has appointed by a person specially qualified to deal with the particular case before the Commission, subject, however, to the rules laid down in Article 3 with regard to the nationality of members.

If one Party desires to avail itself of this right, it shall at once inform the other Party, which may take a similar action within fifteen days of receiving such notification.

Article 6.

If, at the end of his term of office, a member of the Commission has not been replaced, his term shall be considered as renewed for a period of three years. The Chairman, however, shall, at the request of one of the Parties, cease to hold office at the end of his appointed term.

If a member’s term of office expires in the course of proceedings in connection with a dispute, he shall continue to take part in such proceedings until the dispute has been settled, even if his successor has been appointed.

Article 7.

When one of the Parties desires to submit a dispute to the Commission, it shall notify the President. The other Party shall also be informed at once of such notification. The President shall convene the Commission as soon as possible.

The Party which has submitted the dispute to the Commission shall notify the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

Article 8.

The Commission shall meet at the seat of the League of Nations unless in a special case the Parties decide otherwise.

Article 9.

The Parties shall supply the Commission with all the information which may be useful and shall in every respect assist it in the accomplishment of its task.

The Commission may apply to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations for the assistance of the Secretariat if it appears that such assistance is necessary to facilitate its task.
Article 10.

The Parties shall be entitled to appoint special representatives on the Commission; these representatives shall also act as intermediaries between the Parties and the Commission.

Article 11.

Proceedings before the Commission shall not be public unless the Commission so decides and the Parties agree.

Article 12.

In proceedings before the Commission both Parties shall be heard.

The Commission shall draw up rules to govern its procedure, subject to the proviso that the regulations laid down in Chapter III of the Hague Convention of October 18, 1907, for the pacific settlement of international disputes shall be applied, unless the Commission unanimously agrees to depart from these regulations.

Article 13.

The Commission shall take its decisions by a majority vote of its members except where otherwise laid down in the present Convention.

Each member shall have one vote, and in case of a tie the President shall have a casting vote. A quorum shall be constituted if all the members have been duly summoned, and if the President and not less than two other members are present.

Article 14.

The Commission shall make a report on each dispute submitted to it. The report shall include a proposal for the settlement of the dispute, if a settlement is possible, and if at least three members agree to the proposal. The reasoned opinion of the members who are in the minority shall be recorded in the report.

Article 15.

The Commission shall complete its task within six months from the day when the dispute is submitted to it, unless the Parties agree to an extension of this period.

The above period shall not include any time during which the Commission's work is interrupted for reasons arising out of the provisions of Article 2.

Article 16.

The Commission's report shall be signed by the President, who shall immediately bring it to the knowledge of the Parties and of the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

The Parties undertake to inform each other within reasonable time as to how far they approve the findings of the Report and accept the settlement proposed therein.

The Parties shall decide in agreement with one another whether the Commission's report shall be published immediately after it has been issued. In special circumstances, however, the Commission may decide that the report shall be published at once, even in the absence of any such agreement.
Article 17.

Each Party shall pay the allowances of the members of the Commission which it has appointed and shall also pay half the allowances of the Chairman.

The Parties shall endeavour to arrange that the allowances of the members of the Commission on both sides shall be fixed at the same figure.

Each Party shall bear the costs of procedure which it has incurred and half of those which the Commission may declare to be joint costs.

Article 18.

The present Convention is drafted in Finnish, Swedish, Norwegian and French. In questions concerning its interpretation, the French text shall be authoritative.

The present Convention shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at Helsingfors as soon as possible. It shall come into force as soon as the instruments of ratification have been exchanged and shall remain in force for five years from that date. Unless denounced within six months before the expiration of this period, it shall remain in force for a further period of five years and shall thereafter be regarded as renewed for successive periods of five years, unless denounced within six months before the expiration of the preceding period of five years.

In faith whereof, the Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention and thereto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate, at Stockholm, June 27, 1924.
