Z. 122. 843/14a.

VIENNA, JUNE 3, 1926.

MONSIEUR LE CHARGÉ D’AFFAIRES,

As the outcome of the negotiations which have taken place between the Federal Government and the Royal Government with reference to the Customs treatment to be applied to the Dutch cheese specialities known as "Edam" and "Gouda", I have the honour to inform you as follows:

The Federal Government agrees to charge a duty of 30 gold crowns per 100 kilogrammes on the Dutch cheese specialities known as "Edam" and "Gouda" (ex No. 98 of the Austrian Customs Tariff) on importation into Austria from The Netherlands.

This Arrangement will come into force as soon as the Austrian Government has obtained the powers necessary under the Austrian Constitution and has notified the Royal Legation of The Netherlands at Vienna.

The Arrangement will remain operative as long as the Commercial Agreement of September 5, 1923, also continues in force, or, should the latter be replaced by a definitive treaty, for which negotiations are already in progress between the two Governments, as long as such definitive treaty remains in force.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to confirm to me the Royal Government's concurrence in these stipulations, and I avail myself, etc.

RAMEK.

Netherlands Chargé d'Affaires ad interim,
