Your Excellency,

I have the honour to inform you that, pending the ratification of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation concluded on February 4 last between Sweden and Turkey, the Swedish Government agrees that as from October 1, 1928, the products of the soil and of industry originating in Turkey imported into Sweden and intended for consumption, re-export or transit, shall, for a further period of six months, enjoy most-favoured-nation treatment.

It is understood that the application of this provisional régime shall be conditional upon the application in Turkey, during the above-mentioned period, to products of the soil and of industry originating in Sweden, of the treatment provided for by the Commercial Convention signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, for products of the States signatories thereof.

I am, etc.

(Signed) Johannes Kolmodin.

His Excellency
Tewfik Rouschdi Bey,
Minister for Foreign Affairs
of the Turkish Republic,
etc., etc., etc.,
Angora.
