ITALIAN LEGATION.

COPENHAGEN, December 11, 1929.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,

With reference to the correspondence I have had the honour to exchange with the Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs with a view to the conclusions of an arrangement between the Royal Danish Government and the Royal Italian Government regarding the mutual notification of sentences in criminal matters pronounced by the courts of laws of one of the countries against nationals of the other country, and in accordance with the instructions I have just received from my Government to this effect, I hereby have the honour to confirm to Your Excellency that the Royal Italian Government undertakes, subject to reciprocity, to notify the Royal Danish Government free of cost, as from January 1, 1930, of all sentences for a punishable offence of any kind, with the exception of misdemeanours, which have become res judicata and which have been pronounced by the courts of law of the Kingdom of Italy against nationals of the Kingdom of Denmark.

It is understood that notification shall be made by the transmission of the sentence, or of a form containing an extract therefrom, through diplomatic channels.

I have the honour to be, etc.

(Signed) VIOLA,

Minister of Italy.

To His Excellency

Dr. Peter Munch,

Minister for Foreign Affairs.

MINISTRY
OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

COPENHAGEN, December 11, 1929.

Monsieur le Comte,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your note of to-day's date, and to confirm to you by these presents that the Royal Danish Government undertakes, subject to reciprocity, to notify the Royal Italian Government free of cost, as from January 1, 1930, of all sentences for a punishable offence of any kind, with the exception of misdemeanours, which have become res judicata, and which have been pronounced by the courts of law of the Kingdom of Denmark against nationals of the Kingdom of Italy.

It is understood that notification shall be made by the transmission of the sentence, or of a form containing an extract therefrom, through diplomatic channels.

I have the honour to be, etc.

(Signed) P. Munch.

To Count Guido Viola de Campalto,
Italian Minister.
