2. It is forbidden to send bank notes, coins, gold or silver, whether manufactured or unmanufactured, or other precious articles in uninsured parcels addressed to countries which admit assurance.

3. A parcel which has been wrongly admitted to the post shall be returned to the Office of origin, unless the Administration of the country of destination is authorized by its legislation to dispose of it otherwise. In the latter case the Office of despatch shall be informed in a precise manner of the treatment accorded to the parcel.

Nevertheless, the fact that a parcel contains a letter or communications which constitute an actual or personal correspondence shall not, in any case, entail its return to the Office of origin.

4. Explosive, inflammable or dangerous substances and articles of an obscene or immoral nature shall not be returned to the Office of origin; they shall be disposed of by the Administration which has found them in the mails in accordance with its own internal regulations.

No. 1961
Article 7.

Advice of Delivery.

The sender may obtain an advice of delivery for a parcel under the conditions prescribed for Postal Packets by the Convention of the Postal Union (Article 49 of the Stockholm Convention).

Article 8.

Redirection.

1. A parcel may be redirected in consequence of the addressee’s change of address in the country of destination. The Administration of the country of destination may collect the redirection charge prescribed by its internal regulations. Similarly a parcel may be redirected from one of the two countries which are parties to this Agreement to another country provided that the parcel complies with the conditions required for its further conveyance and provided as a rule that the extra postage is prepaid at the time of redirection or documentary evidence is produced that the addressee will pay it.

The sender by means of a suitable entry on the despatch note and on the parcel, is entitled to forbid any redirection.

2. Additional charges, levied in respect of redirection and not paid by the addressee or his representative shall not be cancelled in case of further redirection or of return to origin, but shall be collected from the addressee or from the sender, as the case may be, without prejudice to the payment of any special charges incurred which the country of destination does not agree to cancel.

Article 9.

Missent Parcels.

Parcels received out of course, or wrongly allowed to be despatched shall be transmitted in accordance with the provisions of Article 16, sections 1 and 2, of the Detailed Regulations.

Article 10.

1. In the absence of a request by the sender to the contrary, a parcel which cannot be delivered shall be returned to the sender without previous notification and at his expense after retention for the period prescribed by the regulations of the country of destination.

2. The sender may request at the time of posting that, if the parcel cannot be delivered as addressed, it may be either (a) treated as abandoned, or (b) tendered for delivery at a second address in the country of destination. No other alternative is admissible. If the sender avails himself of this facility his request must appear on the Despatch Note and must be in conformity with, or analogous to one of the following forms:

   "If not deliverable as addressed, abandon"
   "If not deliverable as addressed, deliver to ................."

   The same request must also be written on the cover of the parcel.

3. The charges due on returned undelivered parcels shall be recovered in accordance with the provisions of Article 24.

1. Parcels may be insured up to a limit of 2,000 francs (Gold).
2. An insurance fee, to be fixed by the Office of origin, shall be charged for each £12 or 300 francs or part thereof of the insured value.

Article XV.

Fraudulent Insurance.

The insured value may not exceed the actual value of the contents of the parcel and the packing, but it is permitted to insure only part of this value.

The fraudulent insurance of a parcel for a sum exceeding the actual value shall be subject to any legal proceedings which may be admitted by the laws of the country of origin.

Article XVI.

Responsibility for Loss or Damage.

1. Except in the cases mentioned in the following Article, the two Administrations shall be responsible for the loss of parcels and for the loss, abstraction or damage of their contents or of a part thereof.

The sender is entitled under this head to compensation corresponding to the actual amount of the loss, abstraction or damage. For uninsured parcels the amount of compensation shall not exceed 10 francs for a parcel not exceeding one kilogramme (3 lb.), 25 francs for a parcel exceeding one kilogramme but not exceeding five kilogrammes (11 lb.) and 40 francs for a parcel exceeding five kilogrammes but not exceeding ten kilogrammes (22 lb) in weight. For an insured parcel the amount of compensation shall not exceed the amount for which it was insured.

In cases where the loss, damage or abstraction occurs in the service of the country of destination, the Office of destination may pay compensation to the addressee at its own expense and without consulting the Office of origin, provided that the addressee can prove that the sender has waived his rights in the addressee's favour.

2. In calculating the amount of compensation indirect loss or loss of profits shall not be taken into consideration.

3. Compensation shall be calculated on the current price of goods of the same nature at the place and time at which the goods were accepted for transmission.

4. Where compensation is due for the loss, destruction or complete damage of a parcel or for the abstraction of the whole of the contents, the sender is entitled to the return of the postage also.

5. In all cases the insurance fees shall be retained by the Postal Administrations.

Article 17.

Exceptions to the Principle of Responsibility.

The two Administrations shall be relieved of all responsibility:

(a) In cases beyond control (force majeure);

(b) When they are unable to account for parcels in consequence of the destruction of official documents through a cause beyond control (force majeure);

(c) When the damage has been caused by the fault or negligence of the sender, or when it arises from the nature of the article;

(d) For parcels of which the contents fall under the ban of one of the prohibitions mentioned in Article 6;

(e) For parcels which have been fraudulently insured for a sum exceeding the actual value of the contents and packing;

(f) In respect of any parcels containing precious stones, jewellery or any article of gold or silver exceeding £100 sterling (2500 francs) in value not packed in a box of the size prescribed by Article 6, section 3, of the Detailed Regulations.

(g) In respect of parcels regarding which enquiry has not been made within the period of one year.

Article 18.

Termination of Responsibility.

The two Administrations shall cease to be responsible for parcels which have been delivered in accordance with their internal regulations and of which the owners or their agents have accepted delivery without reservation.

Article 19.

Payment of Compensation.

The payment of compensation shall be undertaken by the Office of origin except in the cases indicated in Article 16, Section 1, where payment is made by the Office of destination. The Office of origin may, however, after obtaining the sender's consent, authorize the Office of destination to settle with the addressee. The paying Office retains the right to make a claim against the Office responsible.
Article 20.

Period for Payment of Compensation.

1. Compensation shall be paid as soon as possible and, at the latest, within one year from the day following the date of the enquiry.

2. The despatching Office is authorized to settle with the sender on behalf of the other Office if the latter, after being duly informed of the application, has let nine months pass without giving a decision in the matter.

3. The despatching Office may exceptionally postpone the settlement of compensation beyond the period of one year when the question of responsibility cannot be settled owing to circumstances over which the Administrations concerned have no control.

Article 21.

Incidence of Cost of Compensation.

1. Until the contrary is proved responsibility shall rest with the Office which, having received the parcel from the other Office without making any reservation and having been furnished with all the particulars for investigation, prescribed by the regulations, cannot establish either proper delivery to the addressee or regular transfer to the following Office, as the case may be.

2. If in the case of a parcel despatched from one of the two countries for delivery in the other the loss, abstraction or damage has occurred in course of conveyance without its being possible to prove in the service of which country the irregularity took place, the two Administrations shall bear in equal shares the amount of compensation.

3. The same principle shall, as far as possible be applied when other Administrations are concerned in the conveyance of a parcel. Nevertheless, in the case of parcels sent in transit from one of the two countries through the other, neither of the two Administrations shall be held responsible when the loss, abstraction or damage has taken place in a service in which responsibility is not accepted.

4. Customs and other charges which it has not been possible to cancel shall be borne by the Administration responsible for the loss, damage or abstraction.

5. By paying compensation the Administration concerned takes over, to the extent of the amount paid, the rights of the person who has received compensation in any action which may be taken against the addressee, the sender or a third party.

If, however, a parcel which has been regarded as lost is subsequently found, in whole or in part, the person to whom compensation has been paid shall be informed that he is at liberty to take possession of the parcel against repayment of the amount paid as compensation.

Article 22.

Repayment of the Compensation to the Despatching Office.

The Office responsible or on whose account the payment is made in accordance with Article 19 is bound to repay the amount of the compensation within a period of three months after notification of payment. The amount shall be recovered from the country responsible through the Accounts provided for in Article 22, paragraph 2 of the Detailed Regulations.

The Office of which the responsibility is duly proved and which has originally declined to pay compensation is bound to bear all the additional charges resulting from the unwarranted delay in payment.
Article 23.

Credits for Conveyance.

For each parcel despatched from one of the two countries for delivery in the other, the despatching Office shall allow to the Office of destination the rates which accrue to it by virtue of the provisions of Article 4.

For each parcel despatched from one of the two countries in transit through the other, the despatching Office shall allow to the other Office the rates due for the conveyance and insurance of the parcel.

Article 24.

Claims in Case of Redirection or Return.

In case of the redirection or of the return of a parcel from one country to the other, the retransmitting Office shall claim from the other the charges due to it and to any other Administration taking part in the redirection or return.

Article 25.

Charge for Redirection in the Country of Destination.

In case of further redirection or of the return to origin, the redirection charge prescribed by Article 8, section 2 shall accrue to the country which redirected the parcel within its own territory.

Article 26.

Fees.

The fees for Advices of Delivery referred to in Article 7 shall be retained in full by the Office which has collected them.

Article 27.

Insurance Fee.

In respect of insured parcels the despatching Office shall allow to the Office of destination for territorial service a rate of 5 centimes for each 300 francs of insured value or fraction thereof, except for offices in the Territory of Kouang-Tcheou-Wan for which an additional credit of 15 centimes for each 300 francs of insured value is payable. If the Office of destination provides the sea service, the despatching Office shall allow an additional rate of 10 centimes for each 300 francs of insured value or fraction thereof.

Article 28.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

1. The francs and centimes mentioned in this Agreement are gold francs and centimes as defined in the Postal Union Convention of Stockholm.

2. Parcels shall not be subjected to any postal charge other than those contemplated in this Agreement except by mutual consent of the two Administrations.
3. In extraordinary circumstances either Administration may temporarily suspend the Parcel Post, either entirely or partially, on condition of giving immediate notice, if necessary by telegraph, to the other Administration.

4. The two Administrations have drawn up the following Detailed Regulations for ensuring the execution of the present Agreement. Further matters of detail, not inconsistent with the general provisions of this Agreement and not provided for in the Detailed Regulations may be arranged from time to time by mutual consent.

5. The internal legislation of the Straits Settlements and Indo-China shall remain applicable as regards everything not provided for by the stipulations contained in the present Agreement and in the Detailed Regulations for its execution.

Article 29.

ENTRY INTO FORCE AND DURATION OF THE AGREEMENT.

This Agreement shall come into force on a date to be fixed by mutual agreement between the two Administrations and shall remain in force until the expiration of one year from the date on which it may be denounced by either of the two Administrations.

Article 10.

1. The Office re-transmitting a missent parcel shall not levy Customs or other non-postal charges upon it. When an Office returns such a parcel to the Office from which it has been directly received, it shall refund the credits received and report the error by means of a Verification Note.
In other cases, and if the amount credited to it is insufficient to cover the expenses of re-transmission which it has to defray, the re-transmitting Office shall allow to the Office to which it forwards the parcel the credits due for onward conveyance; it shall then recover the amount of the deficiency by claiming it from the Office of exchange from which the missent parcel was directly received.

The reason for this claim shall be notified to the latter by means of a Verification Note.

2. When a parcel has been wrongly allowed to be despatched in consequence of an error attributable to the postal service and has, for this reason, to be returned to the country of origin, the Office which sends the parcel back shall allow to the Office from which it was received the sums credited in respect of it.

3. The charges on a parcel redirected, in consequence of the removal of the addressee or of an error on the part of the sender, to a country with which the Straits Settlements or Indo-China has Parcel Post communication shall be claimed from the Administration to which the parcel is forwarded, unless the charge for conveyance is paid at the time of redirection, in which case the parcel shall be dealt with as if it had been addressed directly from the re-transmitting country to the new country of destination.

2. The Office which returns a parcel to the sender shall indicate clearly and concisely thereon the cause of non-delivery. This information may be furnished in manuscript or by means of a stamped impression or a label.

3. A parcel to be returned to the sender shall be entered on the Parcel Bill with the word “Rebut” in the “Observations” column. It shall be dealt with and charged like a parcel redirected in consequence of the removal of the addressee.

Article 18.

SALE. DESTRUCTION.

1. When a parcel has been sold or destroyed in accordance with the provisions of Article 12 of the Agreement a report of the sale or destruction shall be prepared of which one copy together with the Despatch Note shall be forwarded to the Office of origin.

2. Each despatching Office of Exchange shall number the Parcel Bills in the top left-hand corner in an annual series for each Office of exchange of destination, and as far as possible shall enter below the number the name of the ship conveying the Mail. A note of the last number of the year shall be made on the first Parcel Bill of the following year.

Article 21.

1. On the receipt of a Mail, whether of parcels or of empty bags, the Office of Exchange shall check the parcels and the various documents which accompany them, or the empty bags as the case may be, against the particulars entered on the relative Bill, and, if necessary, shall report missing articles or other irregularities by means of a Verification Note.

2. Any discrepancies in the credits and accounting shall be notified to the despatching Office of Exchange by Verification Note. The accepted Verification Notes shall be attached to the Parcel Bills to which they relate. Corrections made on Parcel Bills not supported by vouchers shall not be considered valid.

Article 22.

per annum to be reckoned from the date of expiration of the said term.

Article 24.

COMMUNICATIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS.

Each Administration shall furnish to the other all necessary information on points of detail in connexion with the working of the service.

Article 25.

ENTRY INTO FORCE AND DURATION OF THE DETAILED REGULATIONS.
