GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND AND TURKEY

Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, with Protocol, signed at Angora,
March 1, 1930, and Exchange of
Notes and Letters, and Procès-Verbal relating thereto of the same date.
No. 2523. — TREATY \(^1\) OF COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION BETWEEN HIS MAJESTY IN RESPECT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY. SIGNED AT ANGORA, MARCH 1, 1930.

Textes officiels anglais, turc et français communiqués par le secrétaire d'Etat aux Affaires étrangères de Sa Majesté en Grande-Bretagne. L'enregistrement de ce traité a eu lieu le 12 novembre 1930.

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, and His Excellency the President of the Republic of Turkey, Desiring to facilitate the development of the trade and commerce of their respective countries and to regulate by means of a treaty the commercial relations between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and such other territories under the sovereignty, protection or authority of His Britannic Majesty as he may desire should be bound by the treaty on the one side, and Turkey on the other side,

Have resolved to conclude a treaty for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India:

For the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland:
The Right Honourable Sir George Russell Clerke, G.C.M.G., C.B., His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary in Turkey;

His Excellence the President of the Republic of Turkey:

His Excellence Zekâi Bey, a former Minister and Ambassador, Deputy for Diyarbekir,
His Excellence Mustafa Şerif Bey, Deputy for Burdur,
His Excellence Menemenli Numan Bey, Under-Secretary of State at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

Who having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

Article 1.

The territories to which the present Treaty applies are, on the part of His Britannic Majesty, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the territories in respect of which notification of accession is given under Article 38 or notice of application is given under Article 37.

\(^1\) L'échange des ratifications a eu lieu à Angora, le 3 septembre 1930.
TURKIYE İLE BUYUK BRITANYA VE SIMALI İRLANDA ARASINDA 1930 SENESİ MARTININ BİRİNCİ GÜNÜ ANKARADA İMZA EDİLEN MA PROTOKOL TİCARET VE SEYRİSEFAİN MUAHEDESİYLE AYNI TARIHTE TEATİ KILINAN NOTALAR VE ŞİFAHİ PROTOKOL.
Article 2.

The expression "companies of the High Contracting Parties" shall, for the purposes of this Treaty, be interpreted in the case of either High Contracting Party as relating to the limited liability and other companies and associations (partnerships) formed for the purpose of commerce, finance, industry, transport or any other business, and carrying on business in the territories of that party, provided that they have been duly constituted in accordance with the laws in force therein, and that they do not pursue any illegitimate end.

Article 3.

All vessels which, according to British law, are deemed to be British vessels, and all vessels which, according to Turkish law, are deemed to be Turkish vessels shall, for the purposes of this Treaty, be deemed British or Turkish vessels respectively.

Article 4.

There shall be between the territories of the High Contracting Parties reciprocal freedom of commerce and navigation.

The subjects or citizens of each of the High Contracting Parties shall, subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the country have free access, with their ships and cargoes, to all places and ports in the territories of the other to which subjects or citizens of that High Contracting Party have, or may have, free access, except for such areas as may, on grounds of security or of a strategic nature, be closed to all foreigners irrespective of nationality.

They shall enjoy the same rights, privileges, liberties, favours, immunities and exemptions in matters of commerce and navigation as are, or may be, enjoyed by subjects or citizens of the other High Contracting Party.

Article 5.

The subjects or citizens of either of the High Contracting Parties shall be entitled to enter, travel, and reside in the territories of the other so long as they satisfy and observe the laws, regulations and decrees applicable to the entry, travelling and residence of all foreigners.

It is nevertheless understood that the terms of this Treaty shall not affect either the right of each High Contracting Party freely to permit or to prohibit immigration into his territories, or the regulations which are, or may be, in force as concerns passports.

Each of the High Contracting Parties reserves the right to prohibit individual subjects or citizens of the other, either under the judgment of a court, or in pursuance of the laws and regulations relating to public morality, public health or pauperism, or for reasons affecting the internal or external safety of the State, from settling or dwelling within his territories, or to expel them on the same grounds.

Article 6.

The subject or citizens of each of the High Contracting Parties in the territories of the other shall enjoy, in respect of the legal and judicial protection of their property, rights and interests, the same treatment as national subjects or citizens.
Article 7.

The subjects or citizens of either of the High Contracting Parties may, provided they conform to the laws in force in the territories of the other, carry on their commerce in those territories either in person or by any agents whom they think fit to employ.

The High Contracting Parties agree that in all matters relating to commerce, navigation and industry, the carrying on of any description of business, and the exercise of professions or occupations, any privilege, favour or immunity which either of the High Contracting Parties has actually granted, or may hereafter grant, to the ships and subjects or citizens of any other foreign country shall be extended, simultaneously and unconditionally, without request and without compensation, to the ships and subjects or citizens of the other, it being their intention to secure to each other reciprocally the footing of the most favoured foreign country in this respect.

Article 8.

The High Contracting Parties may, under their laws and regulations, reserve to their own subjects or citizens itinerant trades, pedlary and such other trades and professions as they may think fit.

Article 9.

Provided they conform to the local laws and regulations, the subjects or citizens of each of the High Contracting Parties in the territories of the other shall enjoy, in respect of their persons, their property, rights and interests, and in respect of their commerce, industry, profession, occupation trade or any other matter, in every way the same treatment and legal protection as the subjects or citizens of that Party, in so far as taxes, exactions, customs duties, imposts, fees which are substantially taxes and other similar charges are concerned.

The terms of this Treaty shall not prevent the collection, if required, of fees in connection with the entry, travelling and residence of foreigners generally, as well as with the formalities attendant on their registration. In this respect the treatment of the most favoured foreign country shall be applied.

Article 10.

The subjects or citizens of each of the High Contracting Parties in the territories of the other shall be at full liberty to acquire and possess every description of property, movable and immovable, which the laws of the other High Contracting Party permit, or shall permit, the subjects or citizens of any other foreign country to acquire and possess. They may dispose of the same by sale, exchange, gift, marriage, testament, or in any other manner, or acquire the same by inheritance, under the same conditions as are, or shall be, established with regard to subjects or citizens of the other High Contracting Party.

They shall not be subjected in any of the cases mentioned in the foregoing paragraph to any taxes, imposts or charges of whatever denomination other or higher than those which are, or shall be, applicable to the subjects or citizens of the other High Contracting Party.

They shall also be permitted, subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the country, freely to export their property and their goods in general and shall not be subjected in this respect to any other restrictions or to any other or higher duties than those to which the subjects or citizens of the other High Contracting Party would be liable in similar circumstances.

Article II.

The subjects or citizens of each of the High Contracting Parties in the territories of the other shall have free access to the courts of justice for the prosecution and defence of their rights without other conditions, restrictions or taxes beyond those imposed on national subjects or citizens, and shall, like them, be at liberty to choose, in all cases, their advocates, attorneys or agents from among the persons admitted to those professions according to the laws of the territories in question.

The procedure as regards the cautio judicatum solvi and free legal assistance will be determined by local legislation pending the settlement of these questions by a special convention to be concluded between the two Parties.

Article 12.

The subjects or citizens of each of the High Contracting Parties in the territories of the other shall be exempted, both in time of peace and in time of war, from all compulsory military service, whether in the army, navy or air force, or in the national guard or militia, and, subject to the specific exceptions laid down in the laws pertaining thereto, from the exercise of all judicial, administrative and municipal functions whatever. They shall also be exempted from all contributions, whether in money or in kind, imposed as an equivalent for such service or for the performance of such functions.

The subjects or citizens and companies of one of the High Contracting Parties shall in no case be liable in the territories of the other to any military or civil requisitions other than such as may be levied on the subjects or citizens or companies of the other High Contracting Party. In matters relating to procedure and to indemnification for such requisitions they will be amenable to the legislation of the country, on the same footing as national subjects, citizens, or companies.

Article 13.

The Companies of either of the High Contracting Parties shall be entitled to carry on in the territories of the other High Contracting Party, subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the country, whether through the establishment of branches or otherwise, any description of business permitted by law, which the companies or business associations (partnerships) of any other foreign country are, or may be, permitted to carry on.

They shall be entitled to appear in the courts either as plaintiffs or defendants, subject to the laws of the other Party. In matters relating to the legal and judicial protection of their property, rights and interests they shall enjoy the same treatment as national companies.

The companies of either High Contracting Party, and their branches or agencies, shall enjoy in the territories of the other, so far as concerns taxes, exactions, customs duties, imposts, fees which are substantially taxes, and other similar charges, the same treatment as that accorded to the companies of the other High Contracting Party. It is nevertheless understood that they will be required to pay the fees relating to the issue of permits to foreign companies and to their registration, and to deposit the security required by law; in these matters the treatment of the most favoured foreign country shall be applied.

The mutual grant of national treatment shall not be held to justify a claim to the benefit of such exemptions from taxation as may be granted to undertakings established by the State, or to concessionnaires of a public utility service.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall comply with the following principles so far as concerns the taxation of branches or agencies in his territories of business undertakings belonging to, and managed and controlled by, subjects or citizens of the other High Contracting Party resident outside the territories of the former Party:

(i) Taxation levied on capital shall be calculated only on the capital actually employed within those territories;

(ii) Taxation levied on profits or revenues shall be calculated only on the profits or revenues accruing from the business operations conducted or controlled within those territories;

(iii) Taxation levied on the volume of business done shall be calculated only on the business carried on or controlled within those territories.
Furthermore, the companies of either High Contracting Party may, subject to reciprocity and to compliance with the laws of the country, acquire in the territories of the other Party, under such restrictions as may be provided by the local legislation, any kind of movable property. The same shall apply to the acquisition of immovable property necessary for the business of the company, provided that in this case such acquisition is not the actual object of the company.

In all other matters relating to companies, which are not covered by the present Article, the treatment of the most favoured foreign country shall be applied.

Article 14.

Articles produced or manufactured in the territories of one of the High Contracting Parties, imported into the territories of the other, from whatever place arriving, shall not be subjected to other or higher duties or charges than those paid on the like articles produced or manufactured in any other foreign country.

Article 15.

Articles produced or manufactured in the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties, exported to the territories of the other, shall not be subjected to other or higher duties or charges than those paid on the like articles exported to any other foreign country.

Article 16.

No prohibition or restriction shall be maintained or imposed on the importation of any article, produced or manufactured in the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties, into the territories of the other, from whatever place arriving, which shall not equally extend to the importation of the like articles produced or manufactured in any other foreign country.

No prohibition or restriction shall be maintained or imposed on the exportation of any article from the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties to the territories of the other which shall not equally extend to the exportation of the like articles to any other foreign country.

Exceptions to the general rule laid down in the preceding paragraphs of this Article may only be made in the following cases, it being always understood that the prohibitions or restrictions in question shall be extended at the same time and in the same manner to other foreign countries where the same conditions prevail:

1. Prohibitions or restrictions imposed in the interests of public security;
2. Prohibitions or restrictions regarding traffic in arms, ammunition and implements of war, or, exceptionally, all other military supplies;
3. Prohibitions or restrictions imposed for the protection of public health;
4. Prohibitions or restrictions imposed for the protection of animals or plants, including protection against disease, degeneration or extinction, as well as measures taken against harmful seeds, plants and animals.

Article 17.

In so far as prohibitions or restrictions may be enforced on the importation or exportation of any goods, the High Contracting Parties undertake as regards import and export licences to do everything in their power to ensure:

(a) That the conditions to be fulfilled and the formalities to be observed in order to obtain such licences should be brought immediately in the clearest and most definite form to the notice of the public;
(b) That the method of issue of the certificates or licences should be as simple and stable as possible;
(c) That the examination of applications and the issue of licences to the applicants should be carried out with the least possible delay;
(d) That the system of issuing licences should be such as to prevent the traffic in licences. With this object, licences, when issued to individuals, should state the name of the holder and should not be capable of being used by any other person;
(e) That, in the event of the fixing of rations, the formalities required by the importing country should not be such as to prevent an equitable allocation of the quantities of goods of which the importation is authorised.

The conditions under which licences are given for goods produced or manufactured in the territories of one of the High Contracting Parties imported into or exported to the territories of the other shall be as favourable as the conditions under which licences are given for the goods of any other foreign country.

Article 18.

The provisions of this Treaty do not apply to the trade in narcotics, which shall remain subject to the laws and regulations in force in the territories of the High Contracting Parties.

Article 19.

Internal duties levied within the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties for the benefit of the State, or local authorities or corporations on goods the produce or manufacture of the territories of the other Party shall not be other or greater than the duties levied in similar circumstances on the like goods of national origin.

It is agreed that in cases where no similar goods are produced or manufactured in the territories of the first High Contracting Party the treatment of the most favoured foreign country shall be applied to the produce or manufactured articles in question.

Article 20.

The High Contracting Parties agree that the treatment of commercial travellers' samples on their entry into their respective countries shall be governed for the duration of the present Treaty by the provisions of the Convention signed on the 15th January, 1929, regarding Commercial Travellers' Samples.

Any further facilities or privileges which have been or may be accorded by either Party to any other foreign country in respect of commercial travellers or samples shall be extended unconditionally to the other Party.

Article 21.

The measures taken by the High Contracting Parties for regulating and forwarding traffic across their territories shall facilitate free transit by rail or waterway on routes in use convenient for international transit. No distinction shall be made which is based on the nationality of persons, the flag of vessels, the place of origin, departure, entry, exit or destination, or on any circumstances relating to the ownership of goods or vessels, coaching or goods stock, or other means of transport.

In order to ensure the application of the foregoing provisions, the High Contracting Parties will allow transit in accordance with the customary conditions and reserves across their territorial waters.

No. 2523
Traffic in transit shall not be subject to any special dues in respect of transit (including entry and exit) except for such dues as are intended solely to defray expenses of supervision, statistics and administration entailed by such transit.

The preceding dispositions in no way affect the customs laws concerning the treatment of transit goods, nor the regulations concerning goods which are the subject of an internal duty or of a State monopoly. The transit of such goods shall, however, not be restricted more than is necessary to secure the eventual collection of the internal duty on the goods remaining in the territories of either Party, to assure the object of the monopoly, or to take the precautions necessitated by the transit of goods whose importation or exportation is prohibited.

Neither High Contracting Party shall be bound by this Article to afford transit for passengers whose admission into its territories is forbidden, or for goods of a kind of which the importation or exportation is prohibited in pursuance of the stipulations of the third paragraph of Article 16.

For the purposes of this Article, persons, baggage and goods, and also vessels, coaching and goods stock and other means of transport, shall be deemed to be in transit across the territories of one of the High Contracting Parties when the passage across such territories, with or without transhipment, warehousing, breaking bulk or change in the mode of transport, is only a portion of a complete journey, beginning and terminating beyond the frontier of the Party across whose territories the transit takes place.

Article 22.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall permit the importation or exportation of all merchandise which may be legally imported or exported, and also the carriage of passengers from or to their respective territories, upon the vessels of the other; and such vessels, their cargoes and passengers shall enjoy the same privileges as, and shall not be subjected to any other or higher duties or charges than, national vessels and their cargoes and passengers.

Article 23.

In all that regards the stationing, loading and unloading of vessels in the ports, docks, roadsteads and harbours of the territories of the High Contracting Parties, all privileges or facilities granted by either Party to national vessels shall be granted equally to vessels of the other Party from whatsoever place they may arrive and whatever may be their place of destination.

Article 24.

In regard to duties of tonnage, harbour, pilotage, lighthouse, quarantine or other analogous duties or charges of whatever denomination levied in the name of or for the profit of the Government, public functionaries, private individuals, corporations or establishments of any kind the vessels of each of the High Contracting Parties shall enjoy in the ports of the territories of the other treatment equal to that accorded to national vessels.

Dues and charge levied for the use of maritime ports shall be duly published before coming into force. The same shall apply to the bye-laws and regulations of the ports. In each maritime port authority shall keep open for inspection by all persons concerned a table of the dues and charges in force, as well as a copy of the bye-laws and regulations.

Article 25.

Notwithstanding the terms of Articles 22, 23, and 24, each of the High Contracting Parties may reserve to the national flag or to his own subjects or citizens the following services, in which respect the laws which are or may be in force in the territories of that Party shall apply:

1. Coasting trade (cabinage);
2. Fishing in the territorial waters of the High Contracting Parties;
(3) Maritime services at ports, roadsteads and beaches, and in particular towage and pilotage, life-saving and salvage, in so far as these operations are performed within the limits of territorial waters or in the Sea of Marmora.

The High Contracting Parties may likewise extend support, under the form of bonuses or subsidies to their national mercantile marine, as also to State-owned vessels administered either directly or by a Company in which the State is interested.

Article 26.

Any vessels of either of the High Contracting Parties which may be compelled by stress of weather, or by accident, to take shelter in a port of the territories of the other, shall be at liberty to refit therein, to procure all necessary stores and fuel and to put to sea again, without paying any dues other than such as would be payable in a similar case by a national vessel. In case, however, the master of a merchant vessel should be under the necessity of disposing of a part of his merchandise in order to defray his expenses, he shall be bound to conform to the regulations and tariffs of the place to which he may have come.

If any vessel of one of the High Contracting Parties shall run aground or be wrecked upon the coasts of the territories of the other, such vessel and all parts thereof and all furniture and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all goods and merchandise saved therefrom, including any which may have been cast into the sea, or the proceeds thereof, if sold, as well as all papers found on board such stranded or wrecked vessel, shall be given up to the owners of such vessel, goods, merchandise, &c., or to their agents when claimed by them. If there are no such owners or agents on the spot, then the vessel, goods, merchandise, &c., referred to shall, in so far as they are the property of a subject or citizen or company of the first High Contracting Party, be delivered to the consular officer of that Party in whose district the wreck or stranding may have taken place upon being claimed by him within the period fixed by the laws of the other High Contracting Party, and such consular officer, owners, or agents shall pay only the expenses incurred in the preservation of the property, together with the salvage or other expenses which would have been payable in the like case of a wreck or stranding of a national vessel.

The High Contracting Parties agree, however, that merchandise saved shall not be subjected to the payment of any customs duty unless cleared for internal consumption.

In the case of a vessel being driven in by stress of weather, run aground or wrecked, the respective consular officer shall, if the owner or master or other agent of the owner is not present, or is present and requires it, be authorised to interpose, in order to afford the necessary assistance to his fellow-countrymen.

Article 27.

It shall be free to each of the High Contracting Parties to appoint consuls-general, consuls and vice-consuls to reside in the towns and ports of the territories of the other Party in which such representatives of any other foreign country may be admitted by the respective Governments. Such consuls-general, consuls and vice-consuls, however, shall not enter upon their functions until after they shall have obtained the approval in the usual form of the Government of the country to which they are appointed.

The consular officers of one of the High Contracting Parties shall enjoy in the territories of the other Party the same rights, privileges and exemptions, provided reciprocity be granted, as are, or may be, accorded to similar consular officers of any other foreign country.

Article 28.

In the case of the death of a subject or citizen of one of the High Contracting Parties in the territories of the other, leaving kin but without leaving at the place of his decease any person entitled by the laws of his country to take charge of and administer the estate, the competent consular officer of the country to which the deceased belonged shall, upon fulfilment of the necessary formalities, be empowered to take custody of and administer the estate in the manner and under the limitations prescribed by the law of the country in which the property of the deceased is situated.

It is understood that in all that concerns the administration of the estates of deceased persons any right, privilege, favour or immunity which either High Contracting Party has actually granted, or may hereafter grant, to the consular officers of any other foreign country shall be extended immediately, provided reciprocity be granted, to the consular officers of the other High Contracting Party.

Article 29.

The consular officers of one of the High Contracting Parties residing in the territories of the other shall receive from the local authorities such assistance as can by law be given to them for the recovery of seamen deserters, other than subjects or citizens of the latter High Contracting Party, from the vessels of the former High Contracting Party.

Article 30.

The subjects or citizens or companies of each of the High Contracting Parties shall have in the territories of the other the same rights as subjects or citizens or companies of that High Contracting Party in regard to patents for inventions, trade marks, trade names and designs, upon fulfilment of the formalities prescribed by law.

Article 31.

Each of the High Contracting Parties agrees to furnish, in pursuance of his present or future legislation, the subjects or citizens of the other with suitable civil remedies, and in cases of fraud with suitable penal remedies, in respect of the use of words, devices or descriptions or any other indications which state or manifestly suggest that the goods, in connexion with which they are used, have been produced or manufactured in the territories of the other Party, if such statement or suggestion be false. In such cases the above-mentioned remedies may be exercised by or on behalf of the persons, companies or associations aggrieved, in so far as this is permitted by the legislation of the country.

Each of the High Contracting Parties undertakes to prohibit, in pursuance of his present or future legislation, the importation into, and to provide measures for the seizure on importation into, the territories of that Party of any goods bearing words, devices, descriptions or other indications which state or manifestly suggest that the goods have been produced or manufactured in the territories of the other Party, if such statement or suggestion be false.

It is understood that the provisions of this Article do not impose any obligation to seize goods in transit.

In respect of goods which are imported into, or to which a mark or description has been applied within, the territories of one of the High Contracting Parties, the competent authorities of that Party shall decide what descriptions, on account of their generic character, do not fall within the provisions of this Article.

Article 32.

Each of the High Contracting Parties may require, in order to determine the country of origin of imported goods, certificates of origin attesting that the article imported is the national produce or manufacture of the said country, or that it should be so considered having regard to the transformation which it has undergone in that country.
Certificates of origin in accordance with the form annexed to this Treaty will be issued either by the Chamber of Commerce or Industry to which the consignor belongs, or by the customs authorities of the exporting country, or by any authority or association which may be accepted for the purpose by the country of destination.

The Government of the country of destination may require the certificates to be legalised by their diplomatic or consular representative.

Parcels post packages will be exempt from the requirement of a certificate of origin if the country of destination recognises that no transaction of a commercial character is involved, and that the value of the package does not exceed £T.50, for importations into Turkey, or, if the case should arise, a corresponding amount, for importations into the territories of His Britannic Majesty.

Article 33.

The subjects or citizens of either High Contracting Party visiting fairs or markets for the purposes of trade shall not be treated, in the territories of the other, less favourably than national subjects or citizens, provided they present an identity card in the form annexed to this Treaty, issued by the authorities of the country of which they are subjects or citizens.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph are not applicable to itinerant trades, pedlary, or the solicitation of orders from persons who carry on no trade or industry, in which respects the High Contracting Parties reserve full liberty of legislation.

Article 34.

Treatment on a footing of equality with the most favoured foreign country shall not be applicable to:

(i) Privileges which have been or may be granted by either High Contracting Party for frontier trade with liminope countries, within a zone extending for 15 kilometres on each side of the frontier;

(ii) Special favours arising out of a customs union;

(iii) Special advantages or favours which have been or may be instituted, in customs matters, as between Turkey and the countries detached from the Ottoman Empire under the Treaty\(^1\) of Lausanne of the 24th July, 1923.

Article 35.

Any disputes which may arise between the High Contracting Parties as to the interpretation of the present Treaty, and which it shall have been impossible to settle through the diplomatic channel, shall be, by mutual agreement and by means of a compromis, submitted to arbitration.

Article 36.

The High Contracting Parties agree that the Residence Convention\(^2\) signed at Lausanne on the 24th July, 1923, which is due to expire on the 6th August, 1931, shall become inoperative, in so far as concerns the territories of the High Contracting Parties, as from the date of the entry into force of the present Treaty.

No: 2523
Article 37.

His Britannic Majesty may, through His Britannic Majesty's Representative in Turkey, give notice of his desire that the stipulations of the present Treaty shall apply to any British Colony or Protectorate or to any mandated territory administered by his Government in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and from the date of the said notice the Treaty shall be in force as between Turkey and the territory specified in such notice.

As regards any such territory in respect of which the stipulations of the present Treaty shall have been made applicable under this Article, either of the High Contracting Parties shall have the right to terminate the application of the said stipulations on giving twelve months' notice to that effect.

Article 38.

His Britannic Majesty may, by a notification made by His Britannic Majesty's Representative in Turkey, accede to the present Treaty in respect of any of His Majesty's self-governing Dominions or India.

After the expiry of a period of four years from the coming into force of the present Treaty, either of the High Contracting Parties may, by giving twelve months' notice, terminate the application of the Treaty to any territory in respect of which His Majesty has notified his accession under paragraph 1 of this Article.

Any notification made under paragraph 1 of this Article may include any dependency or mandated territory administered by the Government of the territory in respect of which His Majesty has notified his accession; and any notice of denunciation given under paragraph 2 shall be applicable to any such dependency or mandated territory which was included in such notification of accession.

Article 39.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Angora as soon as possible. It shall come into force immediately on the exchange of ratifications, and shall be binding during a period of five years from the date of its coming into force.

In case neither of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other twelve months before the expiration of the said period of five years of its intention to terminate the Treaty, it shall remain in force until the expiration of one year from the date of such notice.

In the absence of an express provision to that effect, such notice shall not affect the operation of the Treaty as between Turkey and any territory in respect of which notification of accession has been given under Article 38.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done at Angora, in English and in Turkish, both texts having equal force, the 1st day of March, 1930.

PROTOCOL.

At the moment of signing the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, the Plenipotentiaries of the High Contracting Parties have agreed as follows:

1. It is understood that, wherever the present Treaty stipulates national treatment, this implies the treatment of the most favoured foreign country, the intention of the High Contracting Parties clearly being that national treatment in their respective territories is at least equal or superior to the treatment of the most favoured foreign country.

2. Articles 6 and 13. — It is understood that the expression "property, rights and interests," covers, inter alia, dwellings, warehouses, factories, shops, offices and other premises.

3. Article 12. — It is understood that the expression "civil requisitions" covers expropriations for reasons of public interest.

4. Article 13. — It is understood that foreign companies may not concentrate their principal operations, as defined in their Articles, on Turkish territory, but must apply for and obtain Turkish nationality in order to do so.

5. Article 14. — It is understood that, in the application of this Article, no account shall be taken of regional appellations, that is to say, that neither of the High Contracting Parties shall apply to goods produced or manufactured in the territories of the other, in pursuance of a customs classification based on the place of production or of manufacture, other or higher duties or charges than those paid on the like articles produced or manufactured in any other foreign country.

6. Article 16. — It is understood that, notwithstanding the terms of this Article, each of the High Contracting Parties reserves the right to raise the import duties, or to apply other appropriate measures, on the importation into its territories of such produce or manufactured articles of the other as may be favoured by bonuses or subsidies, whether direct or indirect, in so far as the application of such measures may not be prohibited by the terms of an international convention to which both Parties alike have adhered.

7. Article 20. — It is understood that, if the Government of the Turkish Republic should promulgate legislation dealing with the subject of paragraph 1, sub-head (a), of the Convention signed on the 15th January, 1929, regarding Commercial Travellers' Samples, the provisions of this legislation shall be applied in place of the procedure laid down in the above-mentioned sub-head.

8. Article 25. — It is understood that British and Turkish vessels may in any case proceed from a port in the territories of one High Contracting Party to one or more ports in the territories of the same Party, for the purpose either of landing the whole or a part of their cargo or passengers brought from abroad, or of making up or completing their cargo or embarking passengers for a foreign destination.

9. Articles 27 and 28. — It is understood that neither of the High Contracting Parties may claim the benefit of the treatment of the most favoured foreign country as stipulated in these Articles in order to demand for his consular officers any rights other or wider than those granted by that Party to the consular officers of the other.

10. Article 35. — It is understood that, in accordance with the usage of international law, no matter which falls within the domain of sovereignty or the exclusive competence of the State can become the subject of arbitration.

The present protocol will have the same force, effect and duration as the treaty of to-day's date, of which it is to be considered as an integral part.

In witness whereof the above-named Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Protocol.

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to inform you, in reply to your letter of to-day, in which you requested some explanation of the position in Turkish ports of shipping agents, technical experts of marine repair-shops, ship-chandlers, and the representative of "Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping," that the position of these persons, arising from the laws and regulations at present in force, is as follows:

Shipping Agents.

1. No law, regulation or ruling exists imposing any condition as regards the nationality of shipping agents or their employees.

1 Translation of His Britannic Majesty's Foreign Office.
ou de leurs employés, à condition que ceux-ci n'exercent pas une activité réservée aux nationaux en vertu de la loi sur le cabotage.

2. Il est défendu aux agents de navigation et à leurs employés de montrer à bord des mahones pour effectuer l'embarquement et le débarquement des marchandises, et de se charger de tous autres services de port expressément réservés aux ressortissants turcs, s'ils sont de nationalité étrangère, ou, même s'ils sont de nationalité turque, de tous services faisant l'objet d'un monopole.

3. Toutefois, aucune interdiction ne frappe les agents de navigation ou leurs employés de monter à bord de bateaux mouillant dans les ports turcs, et d'y effectuer les travaux rentrant dans le cadre du service intérieur des vaisseaux.

4. Il est entendu que, quoique les métiers de pointeur et de débardeur soient réservés aux nationaux, rien n'empêche les agents de navigation ou leurs employés de prendre note à bord des vaisseaux, sans percevoir des frais pour ce service, du chargement et du déchargement des marchandises.

5. Au cas où ces personnes sont de nationalité étrangère, elles seront tout simplement tenues, en vertu des règlements policiers, de présenter sur demande leur permis de séjour avant de monter à bord.

Autres métiers.

Les experts techniques des chantiers maritimes, les fournisseurs maritimes (ship-chandlers — mais non pas les épiciers sur mer), et le représentant du « Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping » peuvent monter à bord des bateaux sous la condition spécifiée à l'alinéa 5 ci-dessus.

Veuillez agréer, etc.

provided that the latter do not engage in any activity reserved to nationals in pursuance of the law on coasting trade.

2. Shipping agents and their employees are prohibited from going on board lighters to effect the embarkation and disembarkation of goods, and from undertaking any other port services expressly reserved to Turkish nationals, if they are of foreign nationality, or, even if they are of Turkish nationality, any services reserved to a monopoly.

3. Nevertheless, shipping agents or their employees are in no wise prohibited from going on board vessels calling at Turkish ports, and from there performing duties pertaining to the internal services of such vessels.

4. It is understood that, although the trades of tally-clerk and stevedore are reserved to nationals, there is nothing to prevent shipping agents or their employees taking note, on board ship, without levying any charge for this service, of the loading and unloading of goods.

5. Where these persons are of foreign nationality, they will merely be obliged, in pursuance of the police regulations, to show on demand their residence permit before going on board.

Other Professions.

Technical experts of marine repair-shops, ship-chandlers (but not bumboatmen), and the representative of "Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping" may go on board ship subject to the condition described in paragraph 5 above.

I have, etc.

PROCÈS-VERBAL

DE LA SÉANCE TENUE LE 1er MARS 1930 AU SIÈGE DE LA DÉLÉGATION POUR LES TRAITÉS DE COMMERCE À ANKARA.

Présents :

Son Excellence Sir George Clerk.
Mr. EDMONDS.
Mr. ROBERTS.
Colonel WOODS.
Son Excellence ZEKAI BEY.
Son Excellence Mustafa ŞEREF BEY.
Suphi Ziya BEY.

La séance a été convoquée pour la signature du Traité de commerce et de navigation entre le Royaume-Uni de Grande-Bretagne et d’Irlande du Nord et la Turquie.

Au moment de procéder à la signature du traité, le président de la Délégation britannique, Son Excellence Sir Georges Clerk, a tenu à expliquer, en se référant à l’article 25, que dans le Royaume-Uni de Grande-Bretagne et d’Irlande du Nord le cabotage n’est pas réservé au pavillon national.

Le président de la Délégation turque, Son Excellence Zekâi Bey, explique de sa part qu’au contraire les services visés à l’article 25 du traité sont réservés, en Turquie, au pavillon national ou aux citoyens turcs, et que le Gouvernement de la République turque n’a aucune intention de se départir de ce principe.

Sir George Clerk désire s’assurer que les termes de l’alinéa (iii) de l’article 34 ne pourront pas, dans la suite, prêter à un malentendu, et il demande au président de la Délégation turque si le Gouvernement de la République turque partage l’interprétation du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté britannique, dans le sens que l’alinéa ne s’applique pas à l’Albanie, à l’Égypte et à Chypre.

Zekâi Bey confirme que le Gouvernement de la République turque également interprète l’alinéa dans ce sens qu’il ne s’applique pas aux pays mentionnés par Sir George Clerk.

MINUTES

OF THE MEETING HELD ON MARCH 1, 1930, AT THE OFFICES OF THE DELEGATION FOR COMMERCIAL TREATIES AT ANGORA.

Présent :

Mr. EDMONDS.
Mr. ROBERTS.
Colonel WOODS.
His Excellency Zekâi Bey.
His Excellency Mustafa ŞEREF Bey.
Suphi Ziya BEY.

The meeting was called for the signature of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Turkey.

At the moment of proceeding to sign the treaty, the Head of the British Delegation, His Excellency Sir George Clerk, desired to explain, with reference to article 25, that the coasting trade in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland was not reserved to the national flag.

The Head of the Turkish Delegation, his Excellency Zekâi Bey, explained for his part that, on the contrary, the services referred to in article 25 of the treaty were reserved in Turkey to the national flag or to Turkish citizens, and that the Government of the Turkish Republic had no intention of departing from this principle.

Sir George Clerk desired to be assured that the provisions of paragraph (iii) of article 34 would not, in future, lead to misunderstanding, and he asked the Head of the Turkish Delegation whether the Government of the Turkish Republic agreed with the view of His Britannic Majesty’s Government, that the paragraph in question did not apply to Albania, Egypt or Cyprus.

Zekâi Bey said that the Government of the Turkish Republic similarly interpreted that paragraph as not applying to the countries mentioned by Sir George Clerk.

1 Translation of His Britannic Majesty’s Foreign Office.
Zekâi Bey fait part de l’inquiétude éprouvée par son gouvernement du fait des dispositions restrictives dont sont frappés les citoyens turcs dans certains Dominions de Sa Majesté, et il demande si Sir George Clerk a quelque déclaration à faire à cet égard.

Sir George Clerk répond qu’effectivement des dispositions restrictives, concernant exclusivement l’immigration et l’acquisition de la propriété immobilière, existent ou ont existé. Ces dispositions n’étaient pas intentionnellement dirigées contre la Turquie, mais elles étaient conçues de telle façon que dans le fait les citoyens turcs pouvaient assez souvent tomber sous leur coup. Dans une certaine mesure elles ont déjà été rapportées en ce qui concerne les citoyens turcs. Tout en faisant ressortir que ces matières sont de la compétence exclusive des gouvernements de ces Dominions, et qu’elles se prêtent en conséquence à des négociations directes entre la Turquie et les Dominions en question, le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté dans le Royaume-Uni de Grande-Bretagne et d’Irlande du Nord accepte volontiers de se faire l’interprète auprès de ces gouvernements des soucis de la Turquie à cet égard, soucis qu’il y aurait tout intérêt à tranquilliser.

Zekâi Bey exprime à Sir George Clerk ses remerciements de cette déclaration. Il tient, cependant, à faire ressortir qu’à l’article 5 du traité les Hautes Parties contractantes se sont réservé la liberté d’interdire l’immigration sur leurs territoires, et que, d’autre part, les dispositions de l’article 10 soumettent l’acquisition de la propriété immobilière aux conditions établies par les lois du pays et applicables aux sujets ou citoyens de n’importe quel pays étranger. Si malgré toute attente, ajoute-t-il, cette question ne pouvait pas se résoudre d’une façon satisfaisante, la Turquie pourrait vouloir édicter une législation stipulant la condition de la réciprocité à cet égard.

Sir George Clerk répond qu’il est autorisé à déclarer que le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté dans le Royaume-Uni n’ invoquera pas le traité au cas où, dans les conditions mentionnées ci-dessus, la Turquie stipulerait la condition de la réciprocité dans sa législation générale en ce qui concerne l’acquisition de la propriété immobilière par les étrangers.

Sir George Clerk rappelle que l’article 32 du projet de Traité de commerce et de navigation remis par l’Ambassade de Sa Majesté au Ministère des Affaires étrangères au mois de mai dernier prévoyait la mise à exécution, dans les conditions de l’article 10 du traité, de dispositions hôte, dans les termes desquelles une réciprocité appropriée serait garanti à la Turquie.

Zekâi Bey explained that his Government were somewhat disturbed by the restrictive regulations affecting Turkish citizens in certain of His Majesty’s Dominions, and he enquired whether Sir George Clerk had any declaration to make on this subject.

Sir George Clerk replied that certain restrictive regulations, exclusively concerning immigration and the acquisition of real property, either did indeed exist or had existed in the past. These regulations were not intentionally directed against Turkey, but were so framed that in fact Turkish citizens sometimes came within their scope. To a certain extent they had already been withdrawn so far as concerned Turkish citizens. While emphasising that these questions were within the exclusive competence of the Governments of the Dominions concerned and that they accordingly were matters for direct negotiation between Turkey and the Dominions in question, His Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland willingly agreed to explain to those Governments the Turkish anxiety in this matter, which it was very desirable to remove.

Zekâi Bey expressed to Sir George Clerk his thanks for this declaration. He felt bound, however, to emphasise that, under article 5 of the treaty, the high contracting parties had reserved to themselves freedom to prohibit immigration into their territories and that, further, the provisions of article 10 of the treaty left the acquisition of real property subject to the conditions laid down by the laws of the country and applicable to the subjects or citizens of any other foreign country. If, despite every effort, he added, this question could not be settled in a satisfactory manner, Turkey might wish to pass legislation stipulating for reciprocity in this matter.

Sir George Clerk replied that he had been authorised to declare that His Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom would not invoke the treaty in any case where, in the circumstances above mentioned, Turkey passed general legislation requiring reciprocity with regard to the acquisition of real property by foreigners.

Sir George Clerk reminded the Turkish Delegation that article 32 of the draft Treaty of Commerce and Navigation submitted by His Majesty’s Embassy to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in May 1929 provided for the rapports réciproques des hautes parties contractantes, des conventions, etc., suivantes :

1° Conventions et Statuts conclus à Barcelone en 1921 relatifs à la Liberté du Transit et aux Voies d’Eau navigables d’intérêt international ;
2° Convention et Statuts conclus à Genève en 1923 relatifs aux Ports maritimes et aux chemins de fer ;
3° Convention conclue à Genève en 1923 relative aux formalités de Douane ;
4° Protocole sur les Clauses d’arbitrage rédigé à Genève en 1923.

Cet article a été supprimé au courant des négociations, mais néanmoins Sir George Clerk serait heureux si le président de la Délégation turque pouvait lui fournir des éclaircissements en ce qui concerne les intentions du Gouvernement de la République turque quant à ces instruments.

Zekâi Bey fait ressortir que l’adhésion de la Turquie aux conventions, etc., reprises sous le numéro 1 ci-dessus découle déjà de l’article 101 du Traité de Lausanne. En ce qui concerne la Convention et les Statuts mentionnés sous le numéro 2, qui remplacent les recommandations de la Conférence de Barcelone, auxquelles la Turquie avait adhéré en vertu des articles 103 et 104 du Traité de Lausanne, ils sont à présent à l’étude au bureau compétent du Ministère des Affaires étrangères. En ce qui concerne la convention reprise sous le numéro 3, Zekâi Bey est en mesure d’informer Sir George Clerk que le Ministère des Affaires étrangères a référé au Conseil des Ministres dans l’intention de s’adresser au Secrétariat de la Société des Nations afin de savoir si la Turquie pourrait adhérer à la convention en réservant la question des certificats d’origine, sur laquelle elle ne voit pas la possibilité d’accepter les dispositions de la convention. Si la réponse était favorable, rien ne s’opposerait à ce que la Turquie adhère à la convention. Finalement, en ce qui concerne le protocole mentionné sous le numéro 4, le Ministère des Affaires étrangères est en train de demander l’avis du Ministère de la Justice sur cette question.

Sir George Clerk remercie Zekâi Bey de ces précisions. Le traité est ensuite signé.

putting into force, in the reciprocal relations of the high contracting parties, of the following conventions :

(1) The Conventions and Statutes concluded at Barcelona in 1921 respecting Freedom of Transit and Navigable Waterways of International Concern ;
(2) The Convention and Statutes concluded at Geneva in 1923 respecting Maritime Ports and Railways ;
(3) The Convention concluded at Geneva in 1923 respecting Customs Formalities ; and

This article had been deleted in the course of the negotiations, but, nevertheless, Sir George would be happy if the Head of the Turkish Delegation could enlighten him as to the intentions of the Government of the Turkish Republic with regard to these instruments.

Zekâi Bey explained that the adhesion of Turkey to the Conventions, &c., enumerated in 1 above, was provided for in article 101 of the Treaty of Lausanne. So far as concerned the Convention and Statutes referred to in 2, which replaced the recommendations of the Conference at Barcelona, to which Turkey had adhered in virtue of articles 103 and 104 of the Treaty of Lausanne, they were at present being studied by the appropriate Department of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs. So far as concerned the Convention referred to in 3, Zekâi Bey was in a position to inform Sir George Clerk that the Minister for Foreign Affairs had submitted to the Council of Ministers a suggestion that an enquiry should be made of the Secretariat of the League of Nations whether Turkey could adhere to that Convention while reserving the question of certificates of origin, on which question she could not see any possibility of accepting the provisions of the Convention. If the reply from the League was favourable there would be nothing to prevent Turkey adhering to the Convention. Finally, so far as concerned the protocol mentioned in 4, the Minister for Foreign Affairs was about to ask the advice of the Minister of Justice on the matter.

Sir George Clerk thanked Zekâi Bey for this information. The treaty was then signed.

SA MAJESTÉ LE ROI DE GRANDE-BRETAGNE, D'IRLANDE ET DES TERRITOIRES BRITANNIQUES AU DELÀ DES MERS, EMPEREUR DES INDES ET SON EXCELLENCE LE PRÉSIDENT DE LA RÉPUBLIQUE DE TURQUIE,

Désireux de faciliter le développement du commerce de leurs pays respectifs et de régler par traité les relations commerciales entre le Royaume-Uni de Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande du Nord, ainsi que les autres territoires qui se trouvent sous la souveraineté et la protection de l'autorité de Sa Majesté britannique et auxquels Sa Majesté britannique pourrait désirer voir le traité s'appliquer, d'une part, et la Turquie, d'autre part, ont décidé de conclure un traité à cet effet et ont désigné pour leurs plénipotentiaires,

SA MAJESTÉ, LE ROI DE GRANDE-BRETAGNE, D'IRLANDE ET DES TERRITOIRES BRITANNIQUES AU DELÀ DES MERS, EMPEREUR DES INDES,

POUR LE ROYAUME-UNI DE GRANDE-BRETAGNE ET D'IRLANDE DU NORD :

Le très honorable Sir George Russell CLERK, G.C.M. G., C.B., ambassadeur extraordinaire et ministre plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté en Turquie ;

SON EXCELLENCE LE PRÉSIDENT DE LA RÉPUBLIQUE DE TURQUIE :

Son Excellence Zekāı Bey, ancien ministre et ambassadeur, député de Diyarbekir ;
Son Excellence Mustafa Şeref Bey, député de Burdur ;
Son Excellence Menemenli Numân Bey, sous-secrétaire d'État au ministère des Affaires étrangères ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué leurs pleins pouvoirs reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des dispositions suivantes :

Article premier.

Les territoires auxquels s'applique le présent traité sont, pour Sa Majesté britannique, le Royaume-Uni de Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande du Nord et les territoires dont l'accession aura été signifiée, conformément à l'article 38, ou pour lesquels une demande d'accession aura été notifiée conformément à l'article 37.

Article 2.

Le terme « sociétés des Hautes Parties contractantes » sera interprété, aux fins du présent traité, en ce qui concerne chacune des Hautes Parties contractantes, comme s'appliquant aux sociétés à responsabilité limitée, ainsi qu'aux autres sociétés et associations (partnerships-ortaklık).
