Treaty of Conciliation. Signed at
Washington, June 19, 1930.

No. 3138. — TREATY¹ OF CONCILIATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND GREECE. SIGNED AT WASHINGTON, JUNE 19, 1930.

French and English official texts communicated by the Permanent Delegate of the Hellenic Republic accredited to the League of Nations. The registration of this Treaty took place February 2, 1933. This Treaty was transmitted to the Secretariat by the Department of State of the Government of the United States of America, December 5, 1932.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE HELLENIC REPUBLIC and THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, being desirous to strengthen the bonds of amity that bind them together and also to advance the cause of general peace, have resolved to enter into a treaty for that purpose, and to that end have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries :

THE PRESIDENT OF THE HELLENIC REPUBLIC :

Mr. Charalambos SIMOPOULOS, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Greece in Washington ; and

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA :

Mr. Henry L. STIMSON, Secretary of State of the United States of America ;

Who after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in proper form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles :

Article 1.

Any disputes arising between the Government of Greece and the Government of the United States of America, of whatever nature they may be shall, when ordinary diplomatic proceedings have failed and the High Contracting Parties do not have recourse to adjudication by a competent tribunal, be submitted for investigation and report to a permanent International Commission constituted in the manner prescribed in the next succeeding Article ; and they agree not to declare war or begin hostilities during such investigation and before the report is submitted.

Article 2.

The International Commission shall be composed of five members, to be appointed as follows : One member shall be chosen from each country, by the Government thereof ; one member shall be chosen by each Government from some third country, the fifth member shall be chosen by common agreement between the two Governments, it being understood that he shall not be a citizen of either country. The expenses of the Commission shall be paid by the two Governments in equal proportions.

The International Commission shall be appointed within six months after the exchange of ratifications of this treaty ; and vacancies shall be filled according to the manner of the original appointment.

Article 3.

In case the High Contracting Parties shall have failed to adjust a dispute by diplomatic methods, and they do not have recourse to adjudication by a competent tribunal, they shall at once refer it to the International Commission for investigation and report. The International Commission may, however, spontaneously by unanimous agreement offer its services to that effect, and in such case it shall notify both Governments and request their co-operation in the investigation.

The High Contracting Parties agree to furnish the Permanent International Commission with all the means and facilities required for its investigation and report.

The report of the Commission shall be completed within one year after the date on which it shall declare its investigation to have begun, unless the High Contracting Parties shall limit or extend the time by mutual agreement. The report shall be prepared in triplicate, one copy shall be presented to each Government, and the third retained by the Commission for its files.

The High Contracting Parties reserve the right to act independently on the subject matter of the dispute after the report of the Commission shall have been submitted.

Article 4.

The present treaty shall be ratified by Greece in accordance with its constitutional laws and by the President of the United States of America by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof.

The ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington as soon as possible and the treaty shall take effect on the date of the exchange of the ratifications. It shall thereafter remain in force continuously unless and until terminated by one year's written notice given by either High Contracting Party to the other.

In faith whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed this treaty in duplicate in the French and English languages, both texts having equal force, and hereunto affixed their seals.

Done at Washington, the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty.
