Copenhagen, January 25, 1933.

Monsieur le Ministre,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your Note of to-day's date and to confirm that His Majesty’s Government and the Government of the Republic have agreed upon the following addition to the Hague Convention 2 of July 17, 1905, regarding Civil Procedure:

Should documents for service (Article 1 et seq. of the above-mentioned Convention), "commissions rogatoires" (Article 8 et seq.) or decisions regarding costs and charges (Articles 18 and 19) be transmitted by a Danish authority to a Polish authority or vice versa, without the accompanying translations provided for in Articles 3, 10 and 19, paragraph 2, No. 3, the authority to whom application is made shall not therefore be entitled to refuse to accede to the request in question but shall itself be responsible for having the necessary translations prepared.

Aux charges thus incurred shall, if so desired, be refunded to the authority to whom application is made by the authority making application.

I have the honour to be, etc.

(Signed) P. Munch.

His Excellency
M. Michel Sokolnicki,
Polish Minister.
