Budapest, June 22nd, 1934.

Monsieur le Ministre,

With reference to the Note sent to you by the Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs on January 16th, 1929, I have the honour to inform you that, as from July 1st, 1934, the Hungarian Government is prepared to apply to kippered herrings of Norwegian production the conventional Customs duty of 50 gold crowns per 100 kilogrammes specified in the Commercial Treaty 3 concluded between Hungary and Germany on July 18th, 1931, for fried herrings in hermetically sealed tins (Ex 168 (b) 2 of the Hungarian Customs Tariff).

If this rate of duty seriously impedes the importation of kippered herrings, the Hungarian Government is prepared to institute further negotiations with a view to modifying, without compensation, the rate specified above.

I have the honour, etc.

Berlin, July 4th, 1934.

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's note dated June 22nd, 1934, reading as follows:

"With reference to the Note sent to you by the Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs on January 16th, 1929, I have the honour to inform you that, as from July 1st, 1934, the Hungarian Government is prepared to apply to kippered herrings of Norwegian production the conventional Customs duty of 50 gold crowns per 100 kilogrammes specified in the Commercial Treaty concluded between Hungary and Germany on July 18th, 1931, for fried herrings in hermetically sealed tins (Ex 168 (b) 2 of the Hungarian Customs Tariff).

"If this rate of duty seriously impedes the importation of kippered herrings, the Hungarian Government is prepared to institute further negotiations with a view to modifying, without compensation, the rate specified above."

I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that the Norwegian Government accepts the proposed arrangement. The conventional Customs duty of 50 gold crowns per 100 kilogrammes will thus apply to kippered herrings of Norwegian production as from July 1st, 1934.

I have the honour, etc.
