No. 19.511-III/1-1933.

PRAGUE, June 6th, 1933.

Reference: Annex I to the Convention regarding the application of less strict provisions.

Monsieur le Ministre,

At the Dresden Conference of April 20th-22nd, 1933, an Agreement was drawn up with a view to the application of less strict provisions for the transport of articles accepted for transport subject to certain conditions, in accordance with the International Convention concerning the transport of goods dated October 23rd, 1924, and as communicated to Your Excellency by the Reich Transport Ministry at Berlin in its letter No. E. 15, No. 3722, dated May 2nd, 1933.

I have the honour to inform you that I am prepared to accept this Agreement. If Your Excellency is also willing to do so, I would ask you to be good enough to notify me of your acceptance, on receipt of which I shall regard this Agreement as applicable to the traffic between Czechoslovakia and the Netherlands and shall take the necessary steps with a view to its entry into force on July 1st, 1933.

At the same time, I have the honour to state that I am prepared to waive the exchange of initialled texts in both languages. If Your Excellency insists on the exchange of initialled texts, I am prepared to sign and return the text of the Agreement sent to me.

1 Translated by the Secretariat of the League of Nations, for information.

2 Came into force July 1st, 1933.

Should my proposal cross a similar proposal made by Your Excellency, I shall regard the Agreement relating to the application of less strict provisions as concluded. The new Agreement will remain in force between our countries until denounced by either of the Contracting Parties at two months' notice as from the date of denunciation.

I have the honour to be, etc.

Reply to the letter of June 6th, 1933,
No. 19.511-III/1-1933.

Reference: Less strict provisions for the transport of articles which, in accordance with the C. I. M., are not accepted for transport or are only accepted subject to certain conditions.

Monsieur le Ministre,

In reply to Your Excellency’s letter referred to above, I have the honour to inform you that I am prepared to accept your proposal to conclude, on the basis of the text drawn up at the Conference held at Dresden from April 20th to 22nd, 1933, the proposed Agreement concerning less strict provisions for the transport of articles which, in accordance with the C. I. M., are not accepted for transport or are only accepted subject to certain conditions, this Agreement to come into force on July 1st, 1933.

The Agreement will be applicable to traffic between the Netherlands railways and the railways situated in Czechoslovakia.

The exchange of copies signed by both Parties is not regarded as necessary.

The present Agreement will be valid until denounced by either of the Contracting Parties at two months' notice as from the date of denunciation.

I have the honour to be, etc.
