I.

SIR JOHN SIMON TO M. ČERNÝ.

Foreign Office.

February 13th, 1935.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom agree to accept the discharge book of a seaman of Czechoslovak nationality in lieu of a passport:

(a) When the holder seeks permission to land as a seaman under contract to join a ship in a United Kingdom port, or

(b) When he arrives on the Articles of a ship and seeks to obtain temporary leave to land during the stay of the ship in port, or

(c) When he applies for leave to land for discharge for the purpose of repatriation or otherwise, provided that such discharge book shall contain a statement of the seaman's nationality and his signature, as well as a photograph officially fixed.

2. The adoption of the foregoing procedure is subject to the condition that the Czechoslovak Government agree to accept in lieu of a passport for similar purposes the discharge book of a seaman of British nationality, containing a statement of the seaman's nationality and his signature as well as a photograph officially fixed, when such seaman lands at the Danube port of Bratislava, or passes through Czechoslovak territory, having landed at a port in the Aēgean or Black Seas for the purpose of returning home by rail.

\(^1\) Came into force March 4th, 1935.
3. The present note and your reply in a similar sense shall be regarded as placing on record the understanding arrived at in this matter, which shall be terminable by either Government on two months' notice in writing.

I have, etc.

John Simon.

II.

M. Černý to Sir John Simon.

Czechoslovak Legation.

March 4th, 1935.

SIR,

With reference to your note of the 13th February, I have the honour to inform you that the Government of the Czechoslovak Republic agree to accept the discharge book of a seaman of British nationality in lieu of a passport:

(a) When the holder lands at the Danube port of Bratislava, or provided that such discharge book shall contain a statement of the seaman's nationality and his signature, as well as a photograph officially fixed.

The adoption of the foregoing procedure is based conditionally upon the fact that His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom have agreed to accept in lieu of a passport for similar purposes the discharge book of a seaman of Czechoslovak nationality, containing a statement of the seaman's nationality and his signature as well as a photograph officially fixed, when such seaman seeks permission to land as a seaman under contract to join a ship in a United Kingdom port, when he arrives on the Articles of a ship and seeks to obtain temporary leave to land during the stay of the ship in port, or when he applies for leave to land for discharge for the purpose of repatriation or otherwise.

The present note and your above-mentioned note shall be regarded as placing on record the understanding arrived at in this matter, which shall be terminable by either Government on two months' notice in writing.

I have, etc.

V. Černý,
