TALLINN, February 22nd, 1936.

SIR,

By your note of February 22nd, 1936, you were good enough to suggest that the general note relating to Nos. 27 and 28 of List A of the Agreement between Estonia and France, dated March 15th, 1929, should be replaced by the following new note applying to No. 28 only of the said list:

"Only wines accompanied by an indirect taxation certificate drawn up in the proper form shall benefit by the reduced rate of duty."

In reply to this note, I have the honour to inform you that the Estonian Government accepts this proposal and is prepared at the same time to recognise the indirect taxation certificate (permit), a specimen of which was appended to the said note.

The agreement thus reached between our two Governments will only enter into force on the day on which the Estonian Government notifies the Government of the French Republic that it is approved by the President of the Republic.

I have the honour to be, etc.

H. LARETEI.
