I have the honour to inform you that the Royal Bulgarian Government accepts the said proposal, on the basis of the following conditions:

Certificates of origin accompanying Swedish goods intended for Bulgaria shall, if issued by a Swedish Customs office or a Swedish Chamber of Commerce recognised by the State, be accepted by the Customs authorities in Bulgaria, without its being necessary to have them legalised by a Bulgarian consular or other authority.

The same shall apply to certificates of origin accompanying Bulgarian goods intended for Sweden. In consequence, such certificates shall, if issued by a Bulgarian Customs office or a Bulgarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry recognised by the State, be accepted by the Customs authorities in Sweden, without its being necessary to have them legalised by a Swedish consular or other authority.

Certificates of origin shall be drawn up in French or German or shall contain, in a parallel text forming an integral part of the certificate, a translation into one of those languages.
The present Agreement shall come into force on January 1st, 1937.
I should inform you that there are in Bulgaria five Chambers of Commerce and Industry recognised by the State, with head offices at: Sofia, Plovdiv, Varna, Burgas and Ruzhuk.
I should be grateful if you would communicate to me also the number of Chambers of Commerce in Sweden recognised by the State, together with their head offices.
