Brussels, May 13th, 1938.

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians is of opinion that it would be desirable to extend the application of the Extradition Treaty 3 between Belgium and Switzerland of May 13th, 1874, and the Additional Convention 4 relating thereto of September 11th, 1882, to the Belgian Congo and to the Ruanda-Urundi territories, in respect of which Belgium exercises a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations.

The Federal Council being of the same opinion in regard to the desirability of the extension of the said Treaty and Convention, the present letter and the prospective reply of the Swiss Legation in Brussels shall constitute the official embodiment of the Agreement reached between the two Governments on the following points:

(1) The provisions of the Extradition Treaty between Belgium and Switzerland of May 13th, 1874, and of the Additional Convention relating thereto of September 11th, 1882, shall apply to the Belgian Congo and to the Ruanda-Urundi territories.

(2) Application for extradition of persons who have taken refuge in the Belgian Congo or in Ruanda-Urundi shall be made through the diplomatic channel in all cases in which provision is made for application in this form in the Extradition Treaty of May 13th, 1874, and the Additional Convention relating thereto, with the exception of the urgent cases for which Article 6 of the said Treaty provides, where direct application for the arrest of fugitives may be made by the Governor-General of the Belgian Congo at Leopoldville to the Federal Department of Justice and Police at Berne, and vice versa.

(3) For the purposes of the application of the Treaty of May 13th, 1874, and of the Additional Convention relating thereto of September 11th, 1882, and of the present Agreement, (a) the term “Belgian nationals” shall be deemed to mean Belgian citizens and subjects of the Belgian Congo, subjects of Ruanda-Urundi ranking as Belgian nationals, and (b) the term “crimes” shall be deemed to mean offences against the penal law of the Belgian Congo or of Ruanda-Urundi punishable by more than five years’ hard labour (servitude pénale), and the term “misdemeanours” shall be deemed to mean offences punishable by more than two months’ hard labour (servitude pénale).

(4) The time-limit of three weeks for which Article 6 of the Extradition Treaty between Belgium and Switzerland provides shall be extended to three months.

(5) The present Agreement shall come into force ten days after publication, in the manner by law provided in the countries of the two High Contracting Parties, and shall remain in force for the same period as the Extradition Treaty between Belgium and the Swiss Confederation of May 13th, 1874.

I avail myself of this opportunity, etc.

The Federal Council being of the same opinion in regard to the desirability of the extension of the said Treaty and Convention, Your Excellency's letter of May 13th, 1938, and my reply of to-day's date shall constitute the official embodiment of the Agreement reached between the two Governments on the following points:

(1) The provisions of the Extradition Treaty between Switzerland and Belgium of May 13th, 1874, and of the Additional Convention relating thereto of September 11th, 1882, shall apply to the Belgian Congo and to the Ruanda-Urundi territories.

(2) Application for extradition of persons who have taken refuge in the Belgian Congo or in Ruanda-Urundi shall be made through the diplomatic channel in all cases in which provision is made for application in this form in the Extradition Treaty of May 13th, 1874, and the Additional Convention relating thereto, with the exception of the urgent cases for which Article 6 of the said Treaty provides, where direct application for the arrest of fugitives may be made by the Federal Department of Justice and Police at Berne to the Governor-General of the Belgian Congo at Leopoldville, and vice versa.

(3) For the purposes of the application of the Treaty of May 13th, 1874, and of the Additional Convention relating thereto of September 11th, 1882, and of the present Agreement, (a) the term "Belgian nationals" shall be deemed to mean Belgian citizens and subjects of the Belgian Congo, subjects of Ruanda-Urundi ranking as Belgian nationals, and (b) the term "crimes" shall be deemed to mean offences against the penal law of the Belgian Congo or of Ruanda-Urundi punishable by more than five years' hard labour (servitude pénale), and the term "misdemeanours" shall be deemed to mean offences punishable by more than two months' hard labour (servitude pénale).

(4) The time-limit of three weeks for which Article 6 of the Extradition Treaty between Belgium and Switzerland provides shall be extended to three months.

(5) The present Agreement shall come into force ten days after publication, in the manner by law provided in the countries of the two High Contracting Parties, and shall remain in force for the same period as the Extradition Treaty between the Swiss Confederation and Belgium of May 13th, 1874.

I avail myself of this opportunity, etc.
