 - (ii) subject to paragraph (2), conduct a hearing in such manner as the Appeal Committee thinks fit.

(2) The appellant cannot on appeal tender any evidence that the Commission did not have at the time when the Commission made the appealable decision, unless the Appeal Committee is satisfied that —

- (a) the evidence could not with reasonable diligence have been obtained and provided to the Commission at that time;
- (b) the evidence, if given, would have had an important influence on the result of the case though it need not be decisive; and
- (c) the evidence is credible.

(3) If an appellant fails to appear at the hearing of the appeal, the Appeal Committee may, if satisfied that the appellant was duly notified of the hearing date, treat the appeal by that appellant as withdrawn.

(4) The Appeal Committee hearing an appeal may confirm, vary or set aside the appealable decision and, in particular, may make any direction or decision under section 34(4) of the Act.

(5) Where the Appeal Committee determines an appeal or an application related to the appeal, or where an appeal or an application related to the appeal is withdrawn, the Appeal Committee may make such consequential orders as it thinks fit.

- (4) If the Appeal Committee is satisfied that the interests of justice require the service of a document in any other manner, the Appeal Committee may, on the request of the person serving the document or of its own initiative, make an order —
- (a) for the document to be served in that other manner specified by the Appeal Committee; and
 - (b) specifying when the document is deemed to be served.

- (3) Where the person to be served is a partnership (other than a limited liability partnership), paragraph (1)(a) is satisfied if the document is left with any one of the partners for the time being.
- (4) If it appears to an Appeal Committee that it is impracticable for any reason to serve a document personally on a person, the Appeal Committee may, on the application of the party that is required to serve the document or of its own initiative, make an order for substituted service of that document.
- (5) Substituted service of a document pursuant to an order made under paragraph (4) is effected by taking steps as directed by the Appeal Committee to bring that document to the notice of the person to be served.

- (2) An Appeal Committee may, subject to paragraph (3) and on the application of the person seeking the extension, extend on any terms and conditions the time delimited for doing anything under these Regulations or in any order or direction of the Appeal Committee, even if the application for the extension is made after the time delimited has expired.

 - (b) it was not practicable to include such ground in the Notice of Appeal at the time the Notice of Appeal was lodged; or
 - (c) there are exceptional circumstances to do so.
- (4) Where an application to amend a Notice of Appeal, a Response or a Reply is filed under paragraph (1) —
- (a) the time delimited for the filing and service of a Response to that Notice of Appeal or a Reply to that Response under regulation 7, 8 or 9 (as the case may be) is to be extended until such time as the Appeal Committee may direct; and

Non-compliance and errors

- 27.—(1) Unless otherwise provided by the Act or regulations made under the Act, a failure to comply with any provision of these Regulations or any order or direction of an Appeal Committee not affecting the merits of the case does not of itself render the proceedings void.
- (2) Where there has been any failure referred to in paragraph (1) not affecting the merits of the case, an Appeal Committee may, on such terms as to costs or any other matters as it thinks just —
- (a) set aside, in whole or in part, the proceedings in which the failure occurred, any step taken in those proceedings or any order or direction made in those proceedings; or

- (a) the presiding member of the Appeal Committee which heard those appeal proceedings or issued that decision, order, direction or document; or
 - (b) the Chairman.

Consolidation or hearing together of appeals

- 28.—(1) Where 2 or more pending appeals involve the same organisation (as the appellant or as the organisation concerned in the appeals) or the same or similar issues, the Appeal Committee constituted to hear those appeals or the Chairman may at any time, on the request of any party to such an appeal or on the initiative of the Appeal Committee or the Chairman, as the case may be, direct that the appeals or any issue raised in the appeals be consolidated or heard together.
- (2) Before a direction under paragraph (1) is made, all parties to the appeals are entitled to make their submissions on the proposal to consolidate their respective appeals or to hear the appeals together, as the case may be.
- (3) Where any appeals or issues have been consolidated under paragraph (1), the Appeal Committee hearing the consolidated appeals or issues may —
- (a) permit the parties to those appeals to combine any documents in the appeal proceedings;
 - (b) issue a combined direction or decision under section 34(4) of the Act for all or any of the consolidated appeals or issues; and
 - (c) make such other directions as the Appeal Committee thinks fit for the proper administration of those appeals.

Publication and provision of information or documents

- 29.—(1) The Chairman may publish any direction or decision in an appeal or other information relating to an appeal in such manner as the Chairman may decide.
- (2) Where the Chairman, Appeal Committee or Secretary is required or permitted to provide any information or document under these Regulations, the Chairman, Appeal Committee or Secretary (as the case may be) may do so in summary or in a redacted form as the Chairman, Appeal Committee or Secretary (as the case may be) thinks fit.

Fees

- 30.—(1) The fees payable in relation to an appeal are specified in the Schedule.
- (2) The fee payable under these Regulations for an application or the provision or filing of a document must be paid to the Secretary, in such manner as the Chairman may direct, at the time that the application is made or the document is provided or filed, as the case may be.
- (3) Where the cheque or authorisation for the payment of any fee payable under these Regulations for an application or the provision or filing of a document is dishonoured and such payment is not received within 7 days after that, that application or document is deemed not to have been made or filed.
- (4) If an appeal is deemed withdrawn under section 34(2) of the Act because of an application for reconsideration by any person, the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Communications and Information, may refund the whole or a part of the fee specified in item 1 of the Schedule paid by the appellant (not being the person that applied for the reconsideration) in respect of the appeal deemed to be withdrawn.
