some weeks before the opening of the second session of the General Assembly, an ad hoc Committee composed in equal numbers of representatives of the Members transmitting information under Article 73c of the Charter and of representatives of Members elected, by the General Assembly at this session, on the basis of an equitable geographical distribution;

5. Invites the Secretary-General to request the Food and Agriculture Organization, the International Labour Organization, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, and the World Health Organization, when constituted, to send representatives in an advisory capacity to the meeting of the ad hoc committee;

6. Invites the ad hoc Committee to examine the Secretary-General’s summary and analysis of the information transmitted under Article 73c of the Charter with a view to aiding the General Assembly in its consideration of this information, and with a view to making recommendations to the General Assembly regarding the procedures to be followed in the future and the means of ensuring that the advice, expert knowledge and experience of the specialized agencies are used to the best advantage.

Sixty-fourth plenary meeting,
14 December 1946.

At its sixty-fifth and sixty-sixth plenary meetings, on 14 and 15 December 1946 respectively, the General Assembly, in accordance with the terms of the above resolution, elected eight Members of the ad hoc Committee.

The composition of the Committee is as follows:

Members transmitting information under Article 73c of the Charter:
Australia, Belgium, Denmark, France, Netherlands, New Zealand, United Kingdom, United States of America.

Members elected by the General Assembly:
Brazil, China, Cuba, Egypt, India, Philippine Republic, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Uruguay.

67 (1). Regional Conferences of Representatives of Non-Self-Governing Territories

The General Assembly,

Considering that the resolution on Non-Self-Governing Peoples adopted during the first part of the first session of the General Assembly draws attention to the fact that the obligations accepted by Members of the United Nations under Chapter XI of the Charter are already in full force;

Recognizing the importance of the declaration contained in Chapter XI of the Charter especially as it concerns the peace and security of the world.

67 (1). Conférences régionales de représentants de territoires non autonomes

L’Assemblée générale,

Considérant que la résolution prise relativement aux populations non autonomes et adoptée lors de la première partie de la première session de l’Assemblée générale attire l’attention sur le fait que les obligations reconnues par les Membres des Nations Unies aux termes du Chapitre XI de la Charte sont déjà pleinement en vigueur;

Reconnaissant l’importance de la déclaration qui figure au Chapitre XI de la Charte, notamment en ce qui concerne la paix et la sécurité and the political, economic, social and educational advancement of the peoples of Non-Self-Governing Territories as well as their just treatment and protection against abuses;

Recommends all Members having or assuming responsibilities for the administration of Non-Self-Governing Territories to convene conferences of representatives of Non-Self-Governing Peoples chosen or preferably elected in such a way that the representation of the people will be ensured to the extent that the particular conditions of the territory concerned permit, in order that effect may be given to the letter and spirit of Chapter XI of the Charter and that the wishes and aspirations of the Non-Self-Governing Peoples may be expressed.

Sixty-fourth plenary meeting, 14 December 1946.
