RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED ON THE REPORTS
OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

101 (1). Admission of Siam to Membership in the United Nations

_The General Assembly, _
_Having taken note of the application for membership submitted to the Organization of the United Nations by Siam, _
_And of the recommendations of the Security Council on the admission of Siam to membership in the United Nations;_¹
_Decides, therefore: _
_That Siam be admitted to membership in the United Nations. _

_Sixty-seventh plenary meeting, _
15 December 1946.

102 (1). Measures to economize the time of the General Assembly

_The General Assembly, _
_Recognizing that the agenda of future sessions will likely entail a heavy volume of work and that the experience acquired during the first session reveals that decisions could be reached more expeditiously through improvements in the rules of procedure and internal organization; _
_Taking into consideration the various proposals that have been submitted on measures to economize the time of the General Assembly and of the discussions pertaining thereto: _
_Invites Members of the General Assembly to forward to the Secretary-General any suggestions they may wish to make regarding measures to economize the time of the General Assembly and proposed changes in the provisional rules of procedure; _
_Directs the Secretary-General to make a study of measures to economize the time of the General Assembly, and of the provisional rules of procedure, taking into account: _
_1. The memoranda submitted by the delegation of Canada;² _
_2. Suggestions received from Members pursuant to the above invitation; _
_3. The views expressed in the Sub-Committee of the General Committee during its consideration of this question;³ _
_4. The experience acquired and the precedents established during the first session;_ and to prepare a report for circulation three months before the opening of the second session:

² Documents A/92, A/92/Add. 1 and A/BUR/69.
³ Document A/BUR 71.
