

1335 (XIII). Public information activities of the United Nations

The General Assembly,

Noting with appreciation the report of the Committee of Experts on United Nations Public Information²⁶ and the comments of the Secretary-General thereon,²⁷

Noting further the statements made by the Secretary-General at the 682nd and 689th meetings of the Fifth Committee concerning the public information activities of the United Nations, in particular his statement that it is his intention to act upon the many excellent recommendations included in paragraph 227 of the report of the Committee of Experts in the light of the basic principles as interpreted in his statement made at the 682nd meeting,

Recalling its resolution 13 (I) of 13 February 1946, as modified by its resolution 595 (VI) of 4 February 1952, setting forth the basic policy of the United Nations public information programme and the principles for the implementation thereof,

Considering that, pursuant to the above-mentioned resolutions, the Secretary-General should, within budgetary limitations imposed by the General Assembly, make available objective and factual information concerning the United Nations and its activities to all the peoples of the world through any appropriate media,

Believing that, consistent with this policy, the Secretary-General should give priority to the use of all media of information which ensure the maximum of effectiveness at the lowest possible cost,

Considering that the Secretary-General should place greater emphasis than heretofore upon enlisting the cooperation of Governments of Member States, privately-owned mass media of information, private institutions, non-governmental organizations, and educators in the programme of informing the peoples of the world of the United Nations and its activities,

Considering that greater emphasis should be placed upon the operations and effectiveness of information centres in relation to the Office of Public Information at Headquarters, without impairing the over-all central direction of the United Nations information programme or the present facilities for the representatives of media of mass communication,

Decides to request the Secretary-General:

1. To give effect in 1959 in so far as practicable to those recommendations made by the Committee of Experts on United Nations Public Information and to any other means which, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, will further the objectives set out in the preamble of the present resolution with the maximum of effectiveness at the lowest possible cost;

2. To consult the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions concerning the financial implications of the action consequent upon his implementing the recommendations in operative paragraph 1 above;

3. To report to the General Assembly at its fourteenth session concerning the progress he has made in implementing the present resolution.
