1399 (XIV). Report of the International Law Commission covering the work of its eleventh session

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the International Law Commission covering the work of its eleventh session,¹

1. Takes note of the report of the International Law Commission;
2. Expresses its appreciation of the work done by the Commission.

*842nd plenary meeting,
21 November 1959.*

1400 (XIV). Codification of the principles and rules of international law relating to the right of asylum

The General Assembly,

Considering that it is desirable to standardize the application of the principles and rules relating to the right of asylum,

Recalling that the International Law Commission at its first session included the right of asylum in the provisional list of topics of international law selected for codification,²

Requests the International Law Commission, as soon as it considers it advisable, to undertake the codification of the principles and rules of international law relating to the right of asylum.

*842nd plenary meeting,
21 November 1959.*

1401 (XIV). Preliminary studies on the legal problems relating to the utilization and use of international rivers

The General Assembly,

Considering that it is desirable to initiate preliminary studies on the legal problems relating to the utilization and use of international rivers with a view to determining whether the subject is appropriate for codification,

Requests the Secretary-General to prepare and circulate to Member States a report containing:

(a) Information provided by Member States regarding their laws and legislation in force in the matter and, when necessary, a summary of such information;

(b) A summary of existing bilateral and multilateral treaties;

(c) A summary of decisions of international tribunals, including arbitral awards;

(d) A survey of studies made or being made by non-governmental organizations concerned with international law.

*842nd plenary meeting,
21 November 1959.*

1450 (XIV). International conference of plenipotentiaries on diplomatic intercourse and immunities

The General Assembly,

Recalling that, by its resolution 1288 (XIII) of 5 December 1958, it decided to include in the provisional agenda of its fourteenth session the question entitled "Diplomatic intercourse and immunities" with a view to the early conclusion of a convention on diplomatic intercourse and immunities,
