2090 (XX). The role of the United Nations in training national technical personnel for the accelerated industrialization of the developing countries

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 1824 (XVII) of 18 December 1962 and Economic and Social Council resolution 1029 (XXXVII) of 13 August 1964,

Attaching great importance to the training of national technical personnel for the accelerated industrialization of the developing countries on the basis of the latest achievements of science and technology,

Considering that, in pursuance of Economic and Social Council resolution 1029 (XXXVII), the report of the Secretary-General36 was transmitted to the Governments of Member States, the specialized agencies, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the regional economic commissions and the Committee for Industrial De-development, for their comments and recommendations,

Desiring to contribute further to the successful solution of the problem of training national technical personnel for the accelerated industrialization of the developing countries with a view to attaining the aims of the United Nations Development Decade,

1. Notes with appreciation the valuable report prebpared by the Secretary-General in co-operation with the specialized agencies;

2. Commends the Centre for Industrial Development, the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency for their activities in training national technical personnel for the industrialization of developing countries, such as symposia, seminars and advanced training courses, undertaken within the framework of the United Nations technical assistance prorgrammes;

3. Requests the Centre for Industrial Development to continue and to expand such activities, financed from the funds of the United Nations Development Programme, and to co-ordinate them with the related activities of the specialized agencies concerned, the International Atomic Energy Agency and the regional economic commissions;

4. Requests Governments, the specialized agencies, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the United Nations Development Programme and the regional economic commissions to consider the recommendations contained in the above-mentioned report and to transmitt to the Secretary-General their comments and suggestions;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to report on the action taken in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 above and on proposals for further measures in this field to the seventh session of the Committee for Industrial Development, which would present its recommendations on the question to the Economic and Social Council at its forty-third session for consideration and submission to the General Assembly at its twenty-second session.
