

Having noted the establishment of a Development Fund with a goal of $3 million to ensure the financial independence of the School,

1. Approves in principle the use of the north end of the Headquarters site for the construction of the United Nations International School, subject to a review of the legal arrangements by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

2. Calls upon Governments of Member States to take prompt action to fulfil the intent of General Assembly resolution 1982 (XVIII) of 17 December 1963 to ensure voluntary contributions towards the establishment of a $3 million Development Fund for the School;

3. Expresses its appreciation for the generous offer of the Ford Foundation to grant up to $7.5 million to build and equip the School;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the present resolution to the Ford Foundation as an expression of the gratitude and appreciation of the General Assembly.

1328th plenary meeting,
10 February 1965.

2004 (XIX). Interim financial arrangements and authorizations for 1965⁶

The General Assembly,

Having noted the statement of the Secretary-General at the 1327th plenary meeting of the General Assembly, on 8 February 1965,

Noting the basic positions and objections of certain Member States with respect to certain sections of the budget and the budget as a whole,

1. Authorizes the Secretary-General, subject to statutory requirements, to enter into commitments and to make payments at levels not to exceed the corresponding commitments and payments for the year 1964;

2. Authorizes the Secretary-General, within the over-all limits of the authorization in paragraph 1 above, to transfer funds between categories of expense and to enter into such minimum commitments as may be required for the purpose of financing certain new priority programmes and supporting services in 1965, notably in the field of trade and industrial development;

3. Decides that, pending further decisions, the arrangements and authorizations with respect to unforeseen and extraordinary expenses and the Working Capital Fund, as approved for the financial year 1964, shall be considered as continuing in force;

4. Requests Member States to make advance payments towards the expenses of the Organization in amounts not less than 80 per cent of their assessed contributions for the financial year 1964, pending decisions by the General Assembly on the level of appropriations and the scale of assessments for 1965, and subject to such retroactive adjustments as may then be called for.

1330th plenary meeting,
18 February 1965.

2005 (XIX). Supervision of the elections to be held in the Cook Islands

The General Assembly,

Taking into account the recommendation on the future of the Cook Islands contained in the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples,⁷

Noting the communication dated 2 February 1965 from the Permanent Representative of New Zealand to the United Nations⁸ and the comments thereon by the Secretary-General,⁹

1. Authorizes supervision by the United Nations of the elections to be held in the Cook Islands in the latter part of April 1965;

2. Authorizes the Secretary-General:

(a) To appoint a United Nations representative who will supervise these elections with the assistance of the necessary observers and staff, observe the proceedings concerning the Constitution in the newly elected Legislative Assembly and report to the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and to the General Assembly;

(b) To meet initially the necessary related expenditures, estimated tentatively at $40,000, under the authority to be granted to the Secretary-General in respect of unforeseen and extraordinary expenses in 1965.

1330th plenary meeting,
18 February 1965.

2007 (XIX). Report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board

The General Assembly,

Having noted the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board¹² and the comments thereon by the Secretary-General and the executive heads of the other member organizations,¹³

Having noted the statement of the Secretary-General at the 1327th plenary meeting of the General Assembly, on 8 February 1965,

Recalling the terms of the authorization given to the Secretary-General in General Assembly resolution 2004 (XIX) of 18 February 1965, and under those same terms,

I

PENSIONABLE REMUNERATION OF THE STAFF

1. Decides that, for the purpose of article I.3 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, the pensionable remuneration of United Nations staff shall, with effect from 1 March 1965, consist of the sum of:

¹¹ See Official Records of the General Assembly, Nineteenth Session, Annexes, annex No. 21, document A/5900.

¹² Ibid., Nineteenth Session, Supplement No. 8 (A/5808).

¹³ Ibid., Nineteenth Session, Annexes, annex No. 18, document A/C.5/1020.

(a) The amount of the salary of the official established in accordance with regulation 3.1 of the Staff Regulations of the United Nations and adjusted, in the case of staff in the professional category and above who are subject to the post adjustment system under annex I of the Staff Regulations, in multiples of 5 per cent whenever the weighted average of the post adjustment classifications of the headquarters and regional offices of the member organizations varies by 5 per cent measured from 1 January 1962; such adjustments shall be effective from the 1 January following the date on which each 5 per cent variation in the weighted average was accomplished;

(b) The amount of any personal allowance to which the official may be entitled under staff rule 103.10;

(c) The amount of any non-resident's and/or language allowance payable to the official after the deduction for staff assessment;

2. Recommends that, in the interest of maintaining the common system of salaries, allowances and conditions of service, the other member organizations of the Fund should take appropriate action to ensure that the pensionable remuneration of their staff is brought into conformity with that of United Nations staff as of the same date;

II

APPLICATION OF PENSIONABLE REMUNERATION TO FUTURE AND CURRENT BENEFITS

1. Decides that benefits which accrue on or after 1 March 1965 shall, subject to article X.4 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, be calculated as though the pensionable remuneration had at all times been established in accordance with section I above, save that:

(a) In the case of staff in the professional and higher categories, between 1 January 1959 and 31 December 1961 pensionable remuneration shall, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 1310 (XIII) of 10 December 1958, be deemed to have been increased during such period by an additional 5 per cent;

(b) The language allowance shall be deemed to have been included in the pensionable remuneration before 1 March 1965 at the rate applicable before the deduction for staff assessment;

2. Decides that benefits which accrued before 1 March 1965 shall be recalculated in accordance with paragraph 1 above and shall accrue in the recalculated amounts with effect from that date, save that no additional entitlement shall accrue in respect of any benefit of which payment was received as a lump sum except in so far as a part remains which is payable in the form of a periodic benefit, and in respect of that part in the proportion which it bears to the benefit as originally calculated.

1328th and 1330th plenary meetings,
10 and 18 February 1965.
