33/22. Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator

The General Assembly,

Recalling section II, paragraph 14, of its resolution 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975, and its resolution 32/56 of 8 December 1977,

Noting Economic and Social Council resolution 1978/41 of 1 August 1978,

Reaffirming that it is necessary to ensure a continued sound financial basis for the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, as recognized by the General Assembly in its resolution 31/173 of 21 December 1976,

Reaffirming also the central role of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator in the mobilization, direction and co-ordination of international disaster relief assistance, in accordance with the mandate established by the General Assembly in its resolution 2816 (XXVI) of 14 December 1971,

Bearing in mind that the timely receipt and distribution of information about the responses of donors is essential for the execution of the mandate of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator,

Having heard the appeal made by the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to donors and recipients of disaster relief assistance to make better use of the machinery which now exists in the co-ordination centre of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator at Geneva,

1. Takes note with satisfaction of the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator⁷ and of the additional information provided by the Co-ordinator in his statement to the Second Committee on 14 November 1977;⁸

2. Commends the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator for his efforts on behalf of the victims of disasters;

3. Calls upon Governments and international organizations to co-operate with the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator by furnishing his Office, as expeditiously as possible, with detailed information on their current and intended relief contributions, in cash and in kind, in order to render more effective the provision of assistance to the victims of disasters;

4. Further calls upon recipient Governments to co-operate with the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator by informing his Office of the relief contributions offered and received;

5. Requests the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to develop further his working arrangements with donors and recipients of relief assistance;

6. Invites all Governments to contribute to the trust fund of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, taking into account the financial difficulties indicated in the report of the Secretary-General;

7. Requests the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme at its next session to give consideration to the inclusion of technical co-operation activities for disaster preparedness and prevention in its regional and interregional programmes.

33/78. Industrial development co-operation

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974 containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974 containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling also the Lima Declaration and Plan of Action on Industrial Development and Co-operation,¹² adopted at the Second General Conference of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, held at Lima from 12 to 26 March 1975, which established the main measures and principles for industrial development and co-operation within the framework of the establishment of the new international economic order,

Emphasizing the decisive contribution of industrialization to economic and social development in developing countries,

Stressing the need to overcome constraints impeding the implementation of the measures proposed for the attainment of the targets contained in the Lima Declaration and Plan of Action,

Reaffirming the role of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization as the central co-ordinating organ within the United Nations system for the promotion of industrial development co-operation,

Taking note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1978/65 of 4 August 1978 on industrial development co-operation,

Having considered the report of the Industrial Development Board on the work of its twelfth session,¹³ including the decisions and resolution contained in the report,

Aware of the need for additional resources and expanded programmes to accelerate the pace of industrialization of developing countries,

Convinced of the need for the United Nations system to use the resources available to it for industrial development in an effective manner,

¹³ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-third Session, Supplement No. 16 (A/33/16).

Convinced of the importance of measures for the development and strengthening of the industrial technological capabilities of developing countries through, inter alia, the transfer and acquisition of technology and access to information on industrial technology, including advanced technology,

Taking note of the report of the Executive Director of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization on industrial redeployment from developed to developing countries,¹⁴ submitted in pursuance of General Assembly resolution 31/163 of 21 December 1976,

Recalling also its resolution 32/163 of 19 December 1977 on the strengthening of operational activities in the field of industrial development in the least developed among the developing countries,

Noting the statement made by the Executive Director of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization,¹⁵

I

1. Reaffirms that the desirable annual funding level for the Industrial Development Fund is $US 50 million and that this level should be achieved in so far as possible during 1979;

2. Urges those countries, especially the developed countries, which have not so far contributed to the Fund to do so;

3. Calls upon all States, in particular the developed countries, to take appropriate action to increase their voluntary contributions to the Fund;

4. Requests the countries currently making special-purpose contributions to make the utilization of such contributions as flexible as possible and requests the Secretariat to suggest suitable projects;

5. Stresses the need to optimize utilization of the Fund for financing operational activities, including pilot projects, in priority areas such as:

(a) Strengthening the technological capability of the developing countries;

(b) Co-operation among the developing countries;

(c) Training programmes;

(d) Special measures for the least developed, landlocked, island and most seriously affected countries;

6. Recommends to the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme an appropriate increase in the annual volume of financial resources under the Special Industrial Services Programme;

II

1. Reaffirms the need to strengthen the effectiveness of the industrial development field advisers network, taking into account General Assembly resolutions 3086 (XXVIII) of 6 December 1973, 31/162 of 21 December 1976 and 32/165 of 19 December 1977;

2. Requests that, pending the completion of the appraisal of ways of increasing the effectiveness of the system of industrial development field advisers, as
