ments to rules 51, 52, 54 and 56 of the rules of

A

The General Assembly,

Referring to its resolution 3190 (XXVIII) of because Arabic, unlike the other official and working languages of the United Nations, is used only in the Affirming that, in the interest of the full effectiveness of the work of the United Nations, Arabic should be accorded the same status as the other official and working languages,

working languages of the subsidiary organs of the General Assembly, no later than 1 January 1982;

2. Requests the Security Council to include Arabic among its official and working languages and the Economic and Social Council to include Arabic among its official languages, no later than 1 January 1983;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary measures to that end and to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-sixth session on the
