

2. The appropriations voted by paragraph 1 above shall be financed by contributions from Members after adjustment as provided by the Financial Regulations, subject to the provision of paragraph 1 of the resolution relating to the Working Capital Fund.¹⁸ For this purpose, miscellaneous income for the financial year 1953 is estimated at $US 6,238,200;

3. The Secretary-General is authorized:

(i) To administer as a unit the following appropriations:

(a) Provisions under section 3a, section 20, chapter III, and section 25, chapter VI;

(b) Provisions under section 13, section 20, chapter II, section 21, and in respect of section 26 for items relating to public information;

(c) Provisions under the various sections in part III for travel on official business;

(ii) To apply the reduction under section 33 to various sections of the budget;

(iii) With the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, to transfer credits between sections of the budget;

4. The Secretary-General is further authorized to enter into such arrangements with the competent authorities of the Republic and Canton of Geneva in connexion with the exchange of the property called Le Chêne owned by the United Nations for the property called Le Bocage owned by the Republic and Canton of Geneva as he may see fit under the provisions set forth in document A/C.5/510;

5. In addition to the appropriations voted by paragraph 1 above, an amount of $US 13,000 is hereby appropriated for the purchase of books, periodicals, maps and library equipment, from the income of the Library Endowment Fund, in accordance with the object and provisions of the endowment.

410th plenary meeting,
21 December 1952.

675 (VII). Unforeseen and extraordinary expenses for the financial year 1953

The General Assembly

Resolves that, for the financial year 1953,

The Secretary-General, with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and subject to the Financial Regulations of the United Nations, is authorized to enter into commitments to meet unforeseen and extraordinary expenses; provided that the concurrence of the Advisory Committee shall not be necessary for:

(a) Such commitments not exceeding a total of $US 2,000,000 if the Secretary-General certifies that they relate to the maintenance of peace and security or to urgent economic rehabilitation;

(b) Such commitments not exceeding a total of $25,000 as are occasioned by the holding of an inter-governmental commodity conference;

(c) Such commitments, not exceeding a total of $50,000 as are required for the United Nations Good Offices Commission on the treatment of people of Indian origin in the Union of South Africa;

(d) Such commitments, not exceeding a total of $50,000 as are required for the Commission on the question of race conflict in South Africa resulting from the policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa;

(e) Such commitments, not exceeding a total of $129,000 as are required for the purchase of Korean service medals and ribbons;

(f) Such commitments, duly certified by the President of the International Court of Justice, relating to expenses occasioned:

(i) By the designation of ad hoc judges (Statute, Article 31),

(ii) By the appointment of assessors (Statute, Article 30), or by the calling of witnesses and the appointment of experts (Statute, Article 50),

(iii) By the holding of sessions of the Court away from The Hague (Statute, Article 22), and not exceeding $24,000, $25,000, and $75,000, respectively, under each of the above three headings;

The Secretary-General shall report to the Advisory Committee and to the General Assembly at its next regular session all commitments made under the provisions of the present resolution, together with the circumstances relating thereto, and shall submit supplementary estimates to the General Assembly in respect of such commitments.

410th plenary meeting,
21 December 1952.

676 (VII). Working Capital Fund for the financial year 1953

The General Assembly
