733 (VIII). Studies on internal migration

The General Assembly,

Considering the close connexion existing between internal movements of population and economic and social progress in the economically less developed countries,

Noting with satisfaction that the Economic and Social Council, in examining the work of the Population Commission, has recently paid attention to the problems of internal migration (resolution 471 D (XV) of 14 April 1953) which have generally not been sufficiently studied,

1. Invites the Economic and Social Council, in cooperation with the International Labour Organisation and other interested agencies, to develop, within available resources, an appropriate programme of studies on internal migration, especially in the economically less developed countries, to be carried out at the request of the countries concerned;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to communicate to the Economic and Social Council, for its guidance and information, the records of the debate on this question in the General Assembly at its eighth session.

734 (VIII). Recognition and enforcement abroad of maintenance obligations

The General Assembly,

Having noted that the question of the reciprocal recognition and enforcement abroad of maintenance obligations has been before the Economic and Social Council which, at its fifteenth session, decided³ to postpone consideration until its seventeenth session,

Requests the Economic and Social Council to do its utmost to complete, if possible, its work on this question in such time as to enable it to report on

735 (VIII). The Social Commission

The General Assembly,

Mindful of the provisions of Articles 61 and 68 of the Charter,

Considering that one of the aims of the United Nations is to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom and to this end to be a centre for harmonizing the actions of nations,

Considering that the General Assembly at its present session has adopted⁴ a programme of concerted practical action in the social field,

Recalling that the Economic and Social Council, in its resolution 414 (XIII) of 18, 19 and 20 September 1951 decided that the Social Commission should meet biennially instead of annually,

Bearing in mind that, in accordance with its resolution 414 (XIII), the Economic and Social Council must review in 1954 the question of organization of its functional commissions,

Having considered the draft proposals⁵ made with a view to the possible revision of the pattern of meetings of the Social Commission, as well as to the expansion of its membership to provide improved representation of under-developed areas and various economic and cultural patterns,

1. Invites the Economic and Social Council, in its review of this question, to consider the aforementioned draft proposals, as well as the suggestions made in the discussion of this matter during the eighth session of the General Assembly;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to communicate to the Economic and Social Council the records of the debate on the question during the eighth session of the General Assembly.

28 November 1953.*

736 (VIII). Freedom of information

A

The General Assembly,

Recalling the decisions contained in the resolutions⁶ on freedom of information adopted at its seventh session,

Regretting that the Economic and Social Council was unable⁷ to give consideration at its sixteenth session to the subject of freedom of information, including the report⁸ of its Rapporteur,

Noting that, at its sixteenth session, the Economic and Social Council postponed consideration of the question of freedom of information to its seventeenth session and decided, in agreement with the Rapporteur, that the Rapporteur would present his report at the seventeenth session,

⁴ See resolution 732 (VIII).

⁵ See documents A/C.3/L.376, A/C.3/L.382, A/C.3/L.384 and A/C.3/L.386.

⁸ Ibid., Supplement No. 12.

Noting that the General Assembly has not studied the draft Convention on Freedom of Information at its sixth, seventh and eighth sessions and that the Economic and Social Council, at its sixteenth session, did not consider the draft Convention on Freedom of Information concurrently with the report of the Rapporteur,

1. Requests the Economic and Social Council to give priority, at its seventeenth session, to discussion of freedom of information, including the report of the Rapporteur, and to the formulation, in accordance with the provisions of General Assembly resolution 631 (VII) of 16 December 1952, of recommendations for the consideration of the General Assembly at its ninth session;

2. Requests the Economic and Social Council, in its discussion of freedom of information, to take into account the views expressed on this subject at the seventh and eighth sessions of the General Assembly;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to complete the report on a programme of concrete action for the development of information facilities in under-developed regions of the world, requested in General Assembly resolution 633 (VII) of 16 December 1952, in time for consideration at the seventeenth session of the Economic and Social Council.

28 November 1953.*

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 635 (VII) of 16 December 1952 in which it requested the Secretary-General, if a representative group of information enterprises and of national and international professional associations expressed a desire to do so, to co-operate with it in organizing an international professional conference for the purpose of preparing the final text of an International Code of Ethics for the use of information personnel,

Noting that replies have already been received from a number of the information enterprises and professional associations consulted by the Secretary-General in pursuance of the aforementioned resolution,

Considering that to await replies from all the information enterprises and professional associations consulted would unnecessarily delay the conference and the preparation of the final text of the Code,

1. Invites the Secretary-General to address a further communication to the enterprises and associations which have not yet replied, requesting them to do so within a reasonable period, and, provided that a representative group of enterprises and associations expresses a desire to do so, to co-operate with the group in organizing an international professional conference for the purpose of preparing the final text of the Code and measures for its implementation;

2. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To bring the text of the present resolution to the notice of the information enterprises and national and international associations to which he communicated the draft Code;

(b) To report to the General Assembly at its ninth session on any progress achieved.
