

national control, especially those of the amphetamine type which tend to stimulate the central nervous system,

Convinced that these non-medical practices, and in particular their rapid increase, constitute a great danger for the international community as a whole,

Considering that immediate and effective action to combat this threat to the health of people everywhere requires the necessary co-operation of Governments,

Bearing in mind the reports of the Economic and Social Council and of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs issued in 1966,²⁵ 1967,²⁶ 1968²⁷ and 1969²⁸ and the work of the World Health Organization,

Recalling its resolution 2433 (XXIII) of 19 December 1968, Economic and Social Council resolutions 1293 (XLIV) and 1294 (XLIV) of 23 May 1968 and 1401 (XLVI) of 5 June 1969, and World Health Assembly resolutions WHA 18.47 of 20 May 1965, WHA 20.42 and WHA 20.43 of 25 May 1967 and WHA 21.42 of 23 May 1968 urging controls on psychotropic substances not yet under international control,

Noting with satisfaction the considerable amount of work achieved by the Commission on Narcotic Drugs and the Economic and Social Council in the preparation of an international instrument for the control of psychotropic substances not yet under international control,

Noting further the decision of the Economic and Social Council to call a special session of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs,²⁹ and also the fact that this session will be held from 12 to 30 January 1970 at Geneva,

Requests the Economic and Social Council to call upon the Commission on Narcotic Drugs at its special session to proceed without delay to complete the draft protocol for the control of psychotropic substances not yet under international control.

Countries, held at Nicosia from 26 June to 9 July 1969, the regional Seminar on the Effects of Scientific and Technological Developments on the Status of Women, held at Iasi from 5 to 18 August 1969, and the regional Seminar on the Establishment of Regional Commissions on Human Rights with special reference to Africa, held at Cairo from 2 to 15 September 1969,

Welcoming the interest shown by Governments in the United Nations activities concerning seminars in the field of human rights,

Acknowledging the important role of regional and international seminars in the promotion of human rights,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Governments of Cyprus, Romania and the United Arab Republic for their offers to act as the host countries for the seminars, their co-operation with the United Nations, which ensured the success of these seminars, and for the generous hospitality extended to all participants;

2. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General and his assistants for the able organization of the seminars held in 1969;

3. Invites the competent United Nations organs, the specialized agencies concerned and the regional inter-governmental organizations to take into account, as appropriate, the discussions and recommendations of the seminars mentioned above;

4. Expresses the hope that the United Nations, in co-operation with Governments, will continue to promote its activities in this field.

2586 (XXIV). Promotion of respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms during the Second United Nations Development Decade

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2027 (XX) of 18 November 1965 relating to the need, during the United Nations Development Decade, to devote special attention at both national and international levels to progress in the field of human rights, and to encourage the adoption of measures designed to accelerate the promotion of respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling further resolution XVII on economic development and human rights, adopted by the International Conference on Human Rights on 12 May 1968,³¹

1. Considers that, in the elaboration of the strategy for the Second United Nations Development Decade, the final aim must be the attainment of a rapid and sustained rate of economic and social development, especially in developing countries, and also the well-being, freedom and dignity of all human beings, and the enjoyment of all the civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights recognized by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and guaranteed by the two International Covenants on Human Rights;

2. Requests the Preparatory Committee for the Second United Nations Development Decade to take
