

based on gross annual salaries as a result of decisions taken by the General Assembly,

1. Decides that, with effect from 1 December 1971, the salary of the Secretary-General shall be $62,500 gross ($37,850 net) per annum;

2. Decides further that the provisions relating to the retirement allowance of the Secretary-General shall henceforth be as follows:

(a) On retirement on the completion of a full term of office, the annual retirement allowance of the Secretary-General shall be one half of the gross salary;

(b) In the event of the Secretary-General's retirement before the completion of the full term of his appointment, he shall be provided with a retirement allowance equal to one half of the full allowance if he has served at least one year, but less than two years; for longer periods, the retirement allowance shall increase by one eighth of the full allowance for each completed year of service beyond one year until reaching its full level on the completion of five years of service;

(c) (i) If the Secretary-General should die in office, his widow shall receive a pension equal to one half of the retirement allowance to which the Secretary-General would have been entitled had he retired on the date of his death; in no case shall the widow's pension be less than one half of the retirement allowance which would have been payable to the Secretary-General after one year of service;

(ii) If the Secretary-General should die while he is in receipt of a retirement allowance, his widow shall receive a pension equal to one half of that retirement allowance;

(iii) If the Secretary-General should die while in office or while he is in receipt of a retirement allowance, benefits equal to those provided for in the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund shall be paid to his surviving children or secondary dependants;

(iv) The conditions under which the benefits listed in (i), (ii) and (iii) above will be payable shall be consistent with those applicable to such benefits when they are paid by the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund;

(d) The provisions contained in appendix D of the Staff Rules of the United Nations shall be applicable mutatis mutandis in the event of death, injury or illness of the Secretary-General attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations.

2836 (XXVI). Publications and documentation of the United Nations<sup>16</sup>

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 593 (VI) of 4 February 1952, 789 (VIII) of 9 December 1953, 1202 (XII) and 1203 (XII) of 13 December 1957, 1272 (XIII) of 14 November 1958, 1851 (XVII) of 19 December 1962, 1987 (XVIII) of 17 December 1963, 2116 (XX) of 21 December 1965, 2150 (XXI) of 4 November 1966, 2292 (XXII) of 8 December 1967, 2361 (XXII) of 19 December 1967, 2478 (XXIII) of 21 December 1968, 2538 (XXIV) of 11 December 1969 and 2732 (XXV) of 16 December 1970,

Having considered part A of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit,<sup>17</sup> section IX of the report of the Special Committee on the Rationalization of the Procedures and Organization of the General Assembly<sup>18</sup> and the comments of the Secretary-General<sup>19</sup> and of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,<sup>20</sup>

Welcoming the action taken by the Economic and Social Council, in section III of resolution 1623 (LI) of 30 July 1971, to improve the effectiveness and reduce the volume of its documentation,

Expressing its appreciation to the Joint Inspection Unit and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions for their reports,

Convinced that the control and limitation of United Nations documentation is necessary for the effective and economical operation of the Organization,

1. Takes note of part A, relating to documentation, of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit, and the related comments of the Secretary-General and of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, and section IX, relating to documentation, of the report of the Special Committee on the Ration-alization of the Procedures and Organization of the General Assembly;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to reduce in 1972 the volume of documentation originating in the Secretariat, other than meetings records, by 15 per cent over-all, compared with the volume of such documentation in 1970 and, to that end, to take such administrative action as may be necessary, including the establishment of departmental quotas, to achieve that target;

3. Decides that the reports submitted to it by its subsidiary organs, by its Main Committees, by the Trade and Development Board and by the Industrial Development Board shall be drafted on the basis of the following principles:

(a) The reports should be action-oriented and concise and should contain precise information confined to a description of the work done by the organ concerned, to the conclusions it has reached, to its decisions and to the recommendations made to the General Assembly;

(b) Introductions containing background information should, as far as possible, be confined to matters of substance rather than procedure and should contain only what it is essential to bring to the notice of the General Assembly;

(c) The account of the deliberations should be concise and should be supplemented, as necessary, by cross-references to the summary records;

(d) Texts available in easily accessible documents should not be incorporated in or annexed to the report;

(e) Texts which are not easily accessible should not be annexed when their substance can reasonably be incorporated in the main body of the report;

(f) Participants should not be listed by name, unless they are serving in their individual capacity;

(g) Where appropriate, reports should include a summary of the proposals, conclusions and recommendations contained therein;

4. Invites the Economic and Social Council to request its subsidiary bodies to follow the principles set forth in paragraph 3 above when preparing their reports to the Council;

5. Requests the Trade and Development Board and the Industrial Development Board to adopt decisions for the control of their documentation, applying mutatis mutandis the guidelines set out in section III of Economic and Social Council resolution 1623 (LI);

6. Invites the Security Council to implement recommendation 7 contained in part A, section IX, of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit;

7. Invites the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council, the Trusteeship Council, the Trade and Development Board and the Industrial Development Board to adopt decisions containing provisions similar to those in paragraph 10 (b) of General Assembly resolution 2538 (XXIV);

8. Decides that for the purposes of paragraph 10 (b) of resolution 2538 (XXIV) the term "summary records" shall mean any meetings records that are prepared by précis-writers and/or translators;

9. Requests all its Main Committees, when considering items on their agenda which involve the submission of annual reports of subsidiary organs or of the Secretary-General, to review whether such reports can be submitted at less frequent intervals;
