3528 (XXX). Avoidance of losses on investments due to currency fluctuations

The General Assembly,

Recognizing that a sound investment policy must take account of the need to avoid losses due to currency fluctuations,

Taking into account that the Working Group on Currency Instability agreed that United Nations investments should be made in sound currencies, as stated in paragraph 50 of the report of the Working Group,⁵²

Taking into account the contents of paragraph 29 of the report of the Secretary-General on the investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund,⁵³

Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, in making the investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, all possible care is taken to avoid losses due to currency fluctuations.

3529 (XXX). Inclusion of Vienna in the pattern of conferences

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 3350 (XXIX) of 18 December 1974,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General⁵⁴ and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,⁵⁵

Reaffirming the need to ensure the most rational and economic use by the United Nations of the premises available for the accommodation of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization and the International Atomic Energy Agency in the Donaupark centre in Vienna after completion of its construction, and the best possible use of the office space provided therein by the Government of Austria,

Noting that the Government of Austria has offered to the United Nations for its use the space in the building known as Tower A-2 in the Donaupark centre which the International Atomic Energy Agency has declared its willingness to release,

Considering that the reports of the Joint Inspection Unit on the utilization of office accommodation in the United Nations system in New York and at Geneva⁵⁶ will be discussed by the General Assembly at its thirty-first session,

1. Authorizes the Secretary-General to inform the Government of Austria that the United Nations is willing to consider its offer of the additional space referred to above;

2. Approves the suggestion of the Secretary-General that the accommodation of United Nations organizations or units in the Donaupark centre in Vienna would facilitate the securing of premises with regard to the future needs of various organizations and services;

3. Expresses the opinion that, upon completion of the Donaupark centre and in so far as full use has been made of all existing space at present headquarters, no additional office space should be acquired by the United Nations in New York or at Geneva until consideration has been given first to the use of available space in Vienna;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, after taking into account the comments and suggestions made at the thirtieth session of the General Assembly in the course of the debate on the inclusion of Vienna in the pattern of conferences, to submit to the Assembly at its thirty-first session—together with detailed information as to the administrative, operative, financial and social implications involved and after consultations with the Governments of other United Nations host countries which might be affected—a comprehensive report with regard to the optimum utilization of the office space by organizations and services of the United Nations, including those financed from extrabudgetary funds, which will enable the Assembly to reach a decision on the matter in full knowledge of the existing situation as well as the future needs and requirements of the organizations in this respect.
