38/147. Consumer protection

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind Economic and Social Council resolution 1981/62 of 23 July 1981, in which the Council requested the Secretary-General to continue consultations on consumer protection with a view to elaborating a set of general guidelines for consumer protection,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on consumer protection,¹⁴ containing the draft guidelines on consumer protection,

Noting Economic and Social Council decision 1983/174 of 28 July 1983, in which the Council, inter alia, recommended that the General Assembly should determine the procedure for the consideration of the draft guidelines with a view to their adoption by the Assembly at its thirty-ninth session,

1. Urges Governments that have not already provided comments on the draft guidelines in response to the Secretary-General's note verbale dated 17 September 1982 to do so as quickly as possible;

2. Decides that the draft guidelines on consumer protection should be considered by the Economic and Social Council during its first and second regular sessions of 1984, perhaps in a sessional working group, with a view to their adoption by the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in view of the importance of the guidelines for consumers in general and for those in the developing countries in particular, to extend all possible assistance towards the finalization and adoption of the draft guidelines.

38/148. International Conference on Population

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, to which is annexed the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, in which the General Assembly declared, inter alia, that the implementation of the World Population Plan of Action¹⁵ should be strengthened in the 1980s and that the international community should increase the level of assistance in this field in support of the World Population Plan of Action,

Recalling further its resolution 3344 (XXIX) of 17 December 1974 on the World Population Conference,

Recalling Economic and Social Council resolution 1979/32 of 9 May 1979 on the strengthening of actions concerned with the fulfilment of the World Population Plan of Action,

Emphasizing the importance of the population question and its close link to development,

Recalling Economic and Social Council resolutions 1981/87 of 25 November 1981, 1982/7 of 30 April 1982, 1982/42 of 27 July 1982 and 1983/6 of 26 May 1983,

Noting that relevant policies and programmes are being adopted by many States as part of their national plans to implement the provisions of the World Population Plan of Action,

Noting also the programmes adopted by United Nations organs and the activities carried out by the United Nations Fund for Population Activities and by non-governmental organizations concerned with the implementation of the provisions of the World Population Plan of Action,

Noting further that the Population Commission, acting as Preparatory Committee for the International Conference on Population, will hold a session open to the participation of all States in January 1984,

Aware of the necessity of appraising the implementation of the World Population Plan of Action and giving new impetus to its full application,

1. Endorses the decisions adopted by the Economic and Social Council in its resolution 1983/6, including the convening of the International Conference on Population at Mexico City from 6 to 13 August 1984;

2. Welcomes with appreciation the offer of the Government of Mexico to serve as host to the International Conference on Population in 1984;

3. Requests the Population Commission, acting as Preparatory Committee open to the participation of all States, to prepare at its meeting in January 1984 a draft provisional agenda for the Conference, taking into account paragraph 5 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/
