38/139. United Nations Conference on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/112 of 16 December 1982, by which it decided that an international convention should be concluded on the basis of the draft articles on the law of treaties between States and international organizations or between international organizations, adopted by the International Law Commission at its thirty-fourth session,⁴⁴

Recalling further that, by its resolution 37/112, it agreed to decide at its thirty-eighth session upon the appropriate forum for the adoption of the convention in the light of the comments received in accordance with that resolution,

Having received the report of the Secretary-General⁴⁵ which contains the comments and observations submitted by a number of States and principal international intergovernmental organizations, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 37/112, and having further received the statement adopted by the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination,⁴⁶

1. Decides that the appropriate forum for the final consideration of the draft articles on the law of treaties between States and international organizations or between international organizations, adopted by the International Law Commission at its thirty-fourth session, shall be a conference of plenipotentiaries to be convened not earlier than 1985;

2. Agrees to decide at its thirty-ninth session upon the question of the date and place for the convening of the United Nations Conference on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations, as well as upon the question of participation in the Conference;

3. Invites States that have not already done so to submit, not later than 1 July 1984, their written comments and observations on the final draft articles on the law of treaties between States and international organizations or between international organizations prepared by the International Law Commission, as well as on the questions referred to in paragraph 60 of the report of the Commission on the work of its thirty-fourth session;⁴⁴

4. Invites also the principal international intergovernmental organizations that have not already done so to submit, within the same period, their written comments and observations on the subject;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to circulate such comments so as to facilitate the discussion on the subject at the thirty-ninth session of the General Assembly;

6. Appeals to potential participants in the Conference to undertake consultations on the draft articles concerned and other related questions prior to the thirty-ninth session of the General Assembly, in order to facilitate the successful conclusion of the work of the Conference;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled "United Nations Conference on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations".

38/140. Report of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country,⁴⁷

Recalling Article 105 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations⁴⁸ and the Agreement between the United Nations and the United States of America regarding the Headquarters of the United Nations,⁴⁹

Recalling further that the problems related to the privileges and immunities of all missions accredited to the United Nations, the security of the missions and the safety of their personnel are of great importance and concern to Member States, as well as the primary responsibility of the host country,

Noting with deep concern the continued acts violating the security and the safety of the personnel of those missions accredited to the United Nations,

Recognizing that effective measures should continue to be taken by the competent authorities of the host country, in particular to prevent any acts violating the security of missions and the safety of their personnel,

1. Endorses the recommendations of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country contained in paragraph 60 of its report;⁴⁷

2. Strongly condemns any acts violating the security of missions accredited to the United Nations and their personnel;

3. Urges the host country to continue to take all necessary measures to ensure effectively the protection, security and safety of the missions accredited to the United Nations and their personnel, including practicable measures to prohibit illegal activities of persons, groups and organizations that encourage, instigate, organize or engage in the perpetration of acts and activities against the security and safety of such missions and representatives;

4. Recalls that continued adherence to the Agreement between the United Nations and the United States of America regarding the Headquarters of the United Nations remains an indispensable condition for the normal functioning of the Organization;
