45/236. Current financial crisis and financial emergency of the United Nations

A

The General Assembly,

Recalling the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and, in particular, Article 17 thereof,

Recalling also its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986, 42/211 and 42/212 of 21 December 1987, 43/215 of 21 December 1988 and 44/195 A of 21 December 1989,

Deeply concerned that the current financial crisis threatens the financial solvency, stability and work of the Organization,

Noting the significant efforts made by Member States to pay their assessed contributions in full or to reduce the level of their outstanding contributions,

Reaffirming the need for a durable, reliable and lasting financial foundation for the Organization, in accordance with the Charter,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the current financial crisis of the United Nations,¹⁶ the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions¹⁷ and the views expressed by Member States in the Fifth Committee on this subject,¹⁸

1. Reiterates the legal obligation of all Member States, under the Charter of the United Nations, to finance the expenses of the Organization as apportioned by the General Assembly;

2. Requests all Member States to pay their outstanding and current assessed contributions in full and in a timely manner in accordance with regulation 5.4 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to monitor the financial situation of the United Nations and to keep the President of the General Assembly and the chairmen of the regional groups informed so as to facilitate consideration by Member States if the situation so requires;

4. Also requests the Secretary-General to communicate to all Member States the latest information on the current financial crisis facing the Organization and to submit a report giving his best projections of the financial situation of the Organization to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session by 15 November 1991, followed by additional and more up-to-date information as soon as possible.

72nd plenary meeting
21 December 1990

B

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 42/216 A of 21 December 1987, 43/220 of 21 December 1988, 44/195 B of 21 December 1989 and all previous related resolutions,

¹⁶ A/45/830.

¹⁷ A/45/860.

¹⁸ See Official Records of the General Assembly, Forty-fifth Session, Fifth Committee, 47th to 49th meetings, and corrigendum.

Noting the increased importance of the role of the Organization in peace-keeping and, in this regard, recalling paragraph 8 of its resolution 45/75 of 11 December 1990,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the analysis of the financial situation of the United Nations,¹⁹ and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,¹⁷

Noting the improvement in the level of the short-term deficit of the Organization, which it is estimated will be reduced to 260.7 million United States dollars as at 31 December 1990,

Concerned at the precarious financial situation of all peace-keeping operations and noting that troop-contributing Member States, including the developing country troop contributors of past and present peace-keeping operations, have borne most of the burden of the deficit,

Noting with concern the long delays in payment and the partial and non-payment of assessed contributions to past and current peace-keeping operations,

Reiterating earlier appeals to Member States, without prejudice to their position of principle, to make voluntary contributions to the Special Account referred to in annex VI to the report of the Secretary-General on the analysis of the financial situation of the United Nations,

Considering the views expressed by Member States in the Fifth Committee during the forty-fifth session,¹⁸

1. Urges all Member States to meet their financial obligations under the Charter of the United Nations by paying promptly and in full all assessed contributions, including advances to the Working Capital Fund and assessments relating to peace-keeping operations;

2. Expresses its appreciation to all Member States that pay their assessed contributions in full in accordance with regulation 5.4 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in addition to sending official communications to the permanent representatives of Member States, to approach, as and when appropriate, the Governments of Member States for the purpose of encouraging the expeditious payment in full of all outstanding assessed contributions to all peace-keeping operations, as well as seeking further voluntary contributions for peace-keeping operations;

4. Also requests the Secretary-General to include in his report on the financial emergency of the United Nations, on a regular basis, a detailed analysis of the financial situation of the Organization, including reimbursements owed to Member States for their participation in peace-keeping operations;

5. Takes note of the proposal of the Secretary-General for an increase in the level of the Working Capital Fund²⁰ and the observations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in this regard¹⁷ and decides to revert to this matter, if necessary, at the forty-sixth session;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the financial emergency of the United Nations to the General Assembly each year by 10 October, including therein the results of his efforts in implementation of paragraph 3 of the present resolution.

45/237. Joint Inspection Unit

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 31/192 of 22 December 1976, 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/218 of 21 December 1987 and other recent relevant resolutions,

Having considered the report of the Joint Inspection Unit on its activities during the period 1 July 1989 to 30 June 1990,²¹ the work programme of the Unit for 1990 and the nucleus of its work programme for 1991-1992²² and the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the recommendations of the Unit,²³

Expressing its appreciation to the Joint Inspection Unit for the reform measures it has introduced to improve further its working methods and the quality of its work,

Reiterating the importance of a detailed and timely consideration of the reports of the Joint Inspection Unit, particularly by Member States and the organizations concerned,

Urging the executive heads and governing bodies of participating organizations of the Joint Inspection Unit to take full advantage of the resources of the Unit and to give due attention to its reports and recommendations,

1. Takes note of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit²¹ and of its work programme for 1990²² and of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the recommendations of the Unit;²³

2. Encourages the Joint Inspection Unit to continue to take into account the following measures in order to enhance further the usefulness of its reports to the governing bodies of the participating organizations:

(a) To take a more selective approach in drawing up its work programme to give greater attention to management, budgetary and administrative issues, including those identified by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in its report on the administrative and budgetary co-ordination of the United Nations with the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, and by the Board of Auditors in its audit opinions and reports, as well as those areas of the United Nations system undergoing reform;

(b) To make every possible effort to issue its reports well in advance of the meetings of the governing bodies of its participating organizations, in particular the General Assembly, and of the relevant subsidiary bodies, to ensure that the comments of the Secretary-General and
