Bearing in mind the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights on 25 June 1993,<sup>2</sup> in particular section II.B of the Declaration, relating to equality, dignity and tolerance,

Reiterating the need to intensify the struggle to eliminate all forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance throughout the world,

Reiterating also the importance of the Convention, which is one of the most widely accepted human rights instruments adopted under the auspices of the United Nations,

Reaffirming that universal adherence to and full implementation of the Convention are of paramount importance for promoting equality and non-discrimination in the world, as stated in the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, adopted by the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance on 8 September 2001,<sup>3</sup>

Mindful of the importance of the contributions of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination to the effective implementation of the Convention and to the efforts of the United Nations to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,

Recalling its resolution 63/243, in which the General Assembly decided to authorize the Committee to meet for an additional week per session, as a temporary measure, with effect from August 2009, until 2011, and noting that the additional meeting time has allowed the Committee to reduce the backlog of reports pending consideration,

Taking note of the note by the Secretary-General on the evaluation of the use of additional meeting time by the human rights treaty bodies,<sup>5</sup> the increasing workload of the treaty bodies and the increasing number of requests from them for more meeting time,
