CARACAS, February 18th, 1938.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,

As a result of the conversations that we have held with regard to the possibility of concluding conventions of commerce and navigation between Norway and the United States of Venezuela, I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that I have been authorised by my Government, pending the conclusion and ratification of a Treaty of Commerce and a Convention on Navigation between the two countries, to establish a Modus Vivendi in the following terms :

Natural or manufactured products, originating in and coming from the territory of one of the Contracting Parties, shall not be subject, when imported into the territory of the other Contracting Party, to Customs duties and accessory charges heavier than those levied on imported products of the same category, originating in and coming from any other country whatsoever.

Further, such products shall not be liable to consumption taxes higher than those levied on similar products of any other country whatsoever.

The vessels of each Contracting Party when within the jurisdiction of the other Party, shall enjoy in all respects the treatment which has been or which may hereafter be granted to the vessels of any other country whatsoever, particularly so far as concerns the crews, the cargo, access to ports and anchorage therein, loading and unloading, and the recovery of taxes, dues and charges.

4. The provisions of this Convention shall not apply to national fisheries, or to the coasting trade.

Exemption from cautio judicatum solvi shall be governed by the national legislation of each of the Contracting Parties.

5. The treatment provided for in this Convention shall not be applicable :

(a) To special favours which have been or may hereafter be granted to adjacent States for the purpose of facilitating frontier traffic, or to other States in virtue of a Customs Union ;

6. The present Convention shall not apply to Svalbard (Spitzbergen), or to the island of Jan Mayen.

7. The present Modus Vivendi shall be published in the two countries in accordance with the requirements of their national legislation, and once this formality has been complied with, it shall be regarded as in force from April 1st, 1938, for a period of one year.

LÉGATION DE NORVÈGE.

SEÑOR MINISTRO,

CARACAS, 16 de febrero de 1938.

Tengo la honra de confirmar a Vuestra Excelencia nuestra conversación sobre la interpretación del Arancel de Aduanas de Venezuela relativa a las sardinas de Noruega, en conexión con el modus vivendi que tenemos en estudio. Quedaría muy agradecido a Vuestra Excelencia si se sirviera confirmarme que el pescado de la familia « Clupea » que se envasa en Noruega en aceite de oliva, tomate, etc., son sardinas en el sentido del Arancel de Aduanas de Venezuela.

Válgame de la oportunidad para renovar a Vuestra Excelencia la seguridad de mi más alta consideración.

CARACAS, 16 de febrero de 1938.

SEÑOR MINISTRO,

Tengo a honra avisar el recibo de la atenta comunicación de V. E. de fecha de hoy y en contestación cumplo manifestarle que examinadas las muestras de sardinas noruegas de los géneros « clupea sprattus » y « clupea harengus », por el Departamento competente del Ministerio de Hacienda resultaron pertenecer a la Tercera Clase más 40 % específico, conforme al número 3 de la Ley de Arancel de Aduanas, bajo la declaración de : « Nº 3 — Productos de la pesca, excepto los secos, salados, salpresa o ahumados : E) Sardinas en forma no especificada. »

En consecuencia las autoridades aduaneras venezolanas consideran las citadas especies como sardinas, a los efectos de la clasificación arancelaria.

Esta interpretación complementa las estipulaciones del modus vivendi que se negocia actualmente entre Noruega y Venezuela.

Aprovecho la oportunidad para reiterar a V. E. los sentimientos de mi alta consideración.

CARACAS, le 16 février 1938.

MONSIEUR LE MINISTRE,

J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de la communication de Votre Excellence en date de ce jour et de porter à votre connaissance qu'après examen des échantillons de sardines norvégien-nes des espèces clupea sprattus et clupea harengus par le Département compétent du Ministère des Finances, il a été reconnu « qu'elles appartenaien à la troisième classe majorée d'un droit spécial de 40 %, selon le Nº 3 de la Loi sur les tarifs douaniers, et rentraient sous la rubrique suivante : Nº 3 — Produits de la pêche, à l'exception des produits secs, salés, en saumure ou fumés : E) Sardines non dénommées ».

En conséquence, les autorités douanières vénézuéliennes considèrent les espèces en question comme étant des sardines aux fins de la classification douanière.

Cette interprétation complète les stipulations du modus vivendi actuellement négocié entre la Norvège et le Venezuela.

CARACAS, February 16th, 1938.

MONSIEUR LE MINISTRE,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's communication of today's date, and in reply beg to inform you that the samples of Norwegian sardines of the species " clupea sprattus " and " clupea harengus " have been found on examination by the competent department of the Ministry of Finance " to belong to the 3rd class, plus 40 per cent. special duty, in accordance with No. 3 of the Customs tariff law, under the description of : No. 3. — Fishery products other than dried, salted, pickled or smoked : E) Sardines not otherwise specified."

The Venezuelan Customs authorities therefore regard the species in question as sardines for the purpose of tariff classification.

This interpretation amplifies the provisions of the Modus Vivendi now under negotiation between Norway and Venezuela.

I avail myself of this opportunity, etc.
