TRANSLATION

No. 53. TREATY¹ OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN EGYPT AND THE YEMEN. SIGNED AT ALEXANDRIA, ON 27 SEPTEMBER 1945

HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF EGYPT
AND
HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF THE YEMEN,

Being desirous to strengthening the ties of friendship between them, have agreed to conclude a treaty strengthening the foundations of their amicable relationship, and for this purpose have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF EGYPT
His Excellency Abd Al Hamid Badawi Pasha, Minister for Foreign Affairs,

HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF THE YEMEN
His Royal Highness Seif Al Islam Abdallah, who, having exchanged their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

Art. 1.—Each of the High Contracting Parties undertakes to maintain friendly relations with the other, to draw closer the bonds of friendship which unite its subjects to those of the other, and to take all measures to prevent the commission on its territory of any act against peace and tranquillity within the territory of the other party.

Art. 2.—Diplomatic and consular relations shall be established between the High Contracting Parties by agreement at an appropriate time.

The diplomatic and consular representatives of each Party shall, subject to reciprocity, receive in the territory of the other Party the treatment recognized by the general principles of international law.

Art. 3.—The High Contracting Parties have agreed to conclude a provisional commercial agreement in conformity with the two letters annexed to this treaty.

Art. 4.—The High Contracting Parties shall ratify this Treaty as soon as possible and it shall have effect from the date of exchange of instruments of ratification, which shall take place at Cairo, and endure for a term of five years renewable by tacit agreement. It may be denounced by either High Contracting Party on three months' notice given to the other.

This Treaty was drawn up at Alexandria on 21 Shawal 1364 (27 September 1945) in two originals in the Arabic language.

ABDALLAH,
Son of the IMAM YAHYA,
KING OF THE YEMEN
