No. 151. AGREEMENT<sup>1</sup> FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PROVISIONAL MARITIME CONSULTATIVE COUNCIL, ADOPTED BY THE UNITED MARITIME CONSULTATIVE COUNCIL. WASHINGTON, 30 OCTOBER 1946

Article I

SCOPE AND PURPOSES

The Provisional Maritime Consultative Council shall be established as a temporary organisation pending the establishment of a permanent inter-Governmental agency in the maritime field—

- (i) to provide machinery for co-operation among Governments in the field of Governmental regulation and practices relating to technical matters of all kinds affecting shipping engaged in international trade, and to encourage the general adoption of the highest practicable standards in matters concerning maritime safety and efficiency of navigation;
- (ii) to encourage the removal of all forms of discriminatory action and unnecessary restrictions by Governments affecting shipping engaged in international trade so as to promote the availability of shipping services to the commerce of the world without discrimination;
- (iii) to provide for the consideration by the Council of any shipping problems of an international character involving matters of general principle that may be referred to the Council by the United Nations. Matters which are suitable for settlement through the normal processes of international shipping business are not within the scope of the Council;

<sup>1</sup> Came into force on 23 April 1947, in accordance with article V, acceptances having been deposited in respect of:

The United States of America	20 November 1946
The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland	1 December 1946
Belgium	3 December 1946
Canada	5 December 1946
Chile	12 December 1946
France	18 December 1946
Netherlands	1 January 1947
Norway	14 January 1947
Greece	29 January 1947
Denmark	4 February 1947
Poland	27 February 1947
Australia	23 April 1947

- (iv) to provide for the exchange of information among Governments on matters under considerations by the Council.

Article II

FUNCTIONS

The functions of the Provisional Maritime Consultative Council, which shall be consultative and advisory, shall be:—

- (a) To consider and make recommendations on any matter within its scope as set forth in Sections (i) and (ii) of Article I.
- (b) To consider and make recommendations on matters within its scope upon the request of any organ of the United Nations or other inter-Governmental specialised agency.
- (c) To advise on matters relating to the draft constitution for a permanent inter-Governmental maritime organisation.

Article III

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Council shall consist of those Governments which notify the Government of the United Kingdom of their acceptance of this Agreement, being either Governments members of the U.M.C.C. or Governments members of the United Nations.

Article IV

ORGANISATION

- (1) The Council shall consist of all member Governments.

(2) The Council may elect an Executive Committee consisting of twelve member Governments which shall exercise such functions as may be delegated to it by the Council. The Executive Committee shall not be established by the Council until at least twenty Governments have accepted this Agreement.

(3) The Council shall at each session determine the host Government and the time for its next meeting. Upon the request of not less than four of the members the Chairman shall summon the Council for an earlier date. The Government of ..... shall convene the first meeting of the Council at any time after 1st March, 1947.

(4) The host Government arranged for each session shall designate a Chairman who shall hold office until the host Government for the next following session has been decided, and shall provide the necessary secretariat for meetings held within its territory.

(5) Decisions of the Council shall be taken by a majority of those present and voting. Ten members shall constitute a quorum. The Council shall otherwise determine its own rules of procedure.

Article V

ENTRY INTO FORCE

(1) This Agreement shall remain open for acceptance in the archives of the Government of the United Kingdom and shall enter into force when twelve Governments, of which five shall each have a total tonnage of not less than 1,000,000 gross tons of shipping, have accepted it.

(2) As soon as this Agreement has come into force, a copy of the Agreement, together with the names of the Governments who have accepted it, shall be sent by the Government of the United Kingdom to the Secretary-General of the United Nations for registration in accordance with Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations.

Article VI

TERMINATION

This Agreement shall cease to have effect upon the entry into force of a constitution for a permanent inter-Government maritime organisation or if the membership falls below twelve. A member Government may withdraw at any time upon six months' notice to the Government of the United Kingdom.
