No. 203. EXCHANGE OF NOTES¹ CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND PORTUGAL RELATING TO THE WAIVER BY THE PORTUGUESE GOVERNMENT OF MOST-FAVOURLED-NATION PROVISIONS OF THE COMMERCIAL ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND PORTUGAL EFFECTED BY AN EXCHANGE OF NOTES OF 28 JUNE 1910, WITH RESPECT TO ADVANTAGES ACCORDED BY THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE PHILIPPINES. WASHINGTON, 18 MAY AND 26 AUGUST 1946

I

The Acting Secretary of State to the Portuguese Ambassador

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

May 18, 1946

Excellency:

With reference to the forthcoming independence of the Philippines on July 4, 1946, my Government considers that provision for a transitional period for dealing with the special tariff position which Philippine products have occupied for many years in the United States is an essential accompaniment to Philippine Independence. Accordingly, under the Philippine Trade Act approved April 30, 1946, goods the growth, produce or manufacture of the Philippines will enter the United States free of duty until 1954, after which they will be subject to gradually and regularly increasing rates of duty or decreasing duty-free quotas until 1974 when general rates will become applicable and all preferences will be completely eliminated.

¹ Came into force on 26 August 1946, by the exchange of the said notes.

Since the enactment of the Philippine Independence Act approved March 24, 1934, my Government has foreseen the probable necessity of providing for such a transitional period and has since then consistently excepted from most-favored-nation obligations which it has undertaken toward foreign governments advantages which it might continue to accord to Philippine products after the proclamation of Philippine independence. Some thirty instruments in force with other governments, for example, permit the continuation of the exceptional tariff treatment now accorded by my Government to Philippine products, irrespective of the forthcoming change in the Commonwealth's political status.

With a view, therefore, to placing the relations between the United States and Portugal upon the same basis, with respect to the matters involved, as the relations existing under the treaties and agreements referred to in the preceding paragraph, I have the honor to propose that the provisions of the Commercial Arrangement between the United States of America and Portugal effected by an exchange of notes signed June 28, 1910,¹ shall not be understood to require the extension to Portugal of advantages accorded by the United States to the Philippines.

In view of the imminence of the inauguration of an independent Philippine Government, I should be glad to have the reply of Your Excellency's Government to this proposal at an early date.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

Dean ACHESON
Acting Secretary of State

His Excellency Dr. João Antonio de Bianchi

EMBAIXADA DE PORTUGAL
WASHINGTON

August 26, 1946

Sir:

With reference to Your Excellency's note of 18 May, 1946, I have the honour to inform Your Excellency, under instructions, that the Portuguese Government agrees to the proposal set out in Your Excellency's note quoted above, according to which the provisions of the Commercial Arrangement between Portugal and the United States of America effected by an exchange of notes signed June 28, 1910, shall not be understood to require extension to Portugal of advantages accorded by the United States to the Philippines, during the transitional period covered by the Philippine Trade Act approved April 30, 1946.

I avail myself of this opportunity to convey to you, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

J. BIANCHI

The Honourable Dean Acheson
Acting Secretary of State
