Article 3

The competent authorities of the two countries shall issue the permits required for the payments mentioned in article 2, on a basis of reciprocity and in accordance with the foreign exchange regulations in force in their respective countries.

Article 4

Payments due by Norwegian debtors to Polish creditors shall be paid in Norwegian crowns to the credit of an account, to be known as the "New Account", opened by the Norges Bank for the Narodowy Bank Polski.

¹ Came into force on 1 January 1947, in accordance with article 13.

Article 5

Payments due by Polish debtors to Norwegian creditors shall be paid to the credit of an account in Norwegian crowns, to be known as the "New Account", kept in favour of the Norges Bank in the Narodowy Bank Polski.

Article 6

The accounts mentioned in articles 4 and 5 above shall not bear interest or other charges. Payments made to payees shall be debited to these accounts and they shall be made as soon as the payment order is received from either bank. The above two accounts shall be set off against each other.

Payments-out in Poland and in Norway shall be made in the chronological order of payments-in received in the other country.

Article 7

The Norges Bank shall execute orders to pay from the Narodowy Bank Polski to the limit of the Norwegian crowns available in the "New Account".

The Norges Bank shall nevertheless, in order to facilitate the efficient working of the present agreement, execute orders to pay from the Narodowy Bank Polski up to a total amount of

1,500,000 Norwegian crowns

over and above the funds available in the account mentioned in article 4.

The Narodowy Bank Polski shall likewise execute orders to pay from the Norges Bank up to a total amount of

1,500,000 Norwegian crowns

over and above the funds available in the account mentioned in article 5.

Article 8

The settlement of accounts for services other than deliveries of goods shall be made in Norway and in Poland, at the official rate of exchange of the Polish zloty as established by the Polish Exchange Commission on the day of payment.

The Narodowy Bank Polski shall notify this rate of exchange and any modification thereof to the Norges Bank.

Article 9

The Norges Bank and the Narodowy Bank Polski shall make, by mutual agreement, the necessary technical arrangements to ensure the application of the present agreement.

Article 10

The operation of the present agreement shall be supervised by a Joint Commission consisting of representatives of the Governments of the two countries.

Article 11

If, when the present agreement expires, the account of one of the banks shows a debit balance, the two Governments undertake immediately to initiate negotiations on the measures to be taken to settle this balance in the course of one year.

Article 12

If, while the present agreement is in force, one or other of the contracting Governments accedes to an international multilateral monetary convention, the two Governments shall adapt the provisions of the present agreement by mutual consent, with a view to making any alteration therein which may be deemed necessary.

Article 13

The present agreement shall come into force on 1 January 1947 and shall remain in force for a period of one year.

It shall be renewed for a further period of one year and so on from year to year, unless one or other of the two Contracting Parties denounces it two months before the date of expiration.
