No. 1514. BASIC AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF DENMARK AND THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION FOR HEALTH PROJECTS IN DENMARK. SIGNED AT GENEVA, ON 5 NOVEMBER 1951

The World Health Organization (hereinafter referred to as "the Organization") desiring to give effect to Article 2 (d) of the Constitution² concerning the provision of technical advisory assistance by the Organization and Resolution WHA.3.116³ adopted by the World Health Assembly on 25 May 1950, concerning the participation of the Organization in an Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance for Economic Development; and

The Government of Denmark (hereinafter referred to as "the Government") having requested technical advisory assistance for the development of health projects in Denmark;

Being desirous of obtaining mutual agreement concerning the purpose and scope of each project and the responsibilities which shall be assumed and the services which shall be provided by the Government and the Organization;

Declaring that their mutual responsibilities shall be fulfilled in a spirit of friendly co-operation;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS :

Article I

(a) The Organization shall render technical advisory assistance to the Government on the matters and in the manner described in Supplementary Agreements made pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) The Organization shall consult with the Government in connexion with any experts (hereinafter referred to as "the personnel") appointed to visit the country in an advisory capacity. The personnel shall be responsible to, and under the direction and supervision of, the Organization.

(c) The personnel shall, in the course of their work, make every effort to furnish information and instruction to any technical staff of the Government who may be associated with them, in the methods, techniques and practices of that work and in the principles upon which these are based, and the Government shall, whenever practicable, assign technical staff to associate with the personnel for this purpose.

³ Official Records of the World Health Organization, No. 28, p. 68.

(d) Grants for study and training abroad may be made available as part of an agreed project. Such grants shall be administered in accordance with the Organization's fellowship regulations.

(e) Any technical or other equipment or supplies provided by the Organization in connexion with any technical advisory assistance furnished by the Organization shall remain the property of the Organization unless and until title thereto is transferred in terms and conditions agreed between the Organization and the Government.

(f) As part of the technical advisory assistance furnished, the Organization may make arrangements for the carrying out of laboratory or other tests, experiments or research outside the country.

Article II

The Organization and the Government agree to be guided by and to observe as appropriate the policies established by the World Health Assembly and the observations on and guiding principles of an Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance for Economic Development set forth in Annex I to Part A of Resolution 222 (IX) of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.¹

Article III

In the planning and execution of projects for which Supplementary Agreements are made pursuant to this Agreement the Organization shall provide and pay for the personnel, equipment, supplies and fellowships, specified in each Supplementary Agreement; more particularly as follows :

(a) Personnel:

The Organization shall pay salaries, allowances and travel outside the country, and insurance of the personnel;

(b) Equipment and Supplies:

The Organization shall be responsible for the purchase and carriage of materials, supplies and equipment to and from the country;

(c) Other Expenses:

The Organization shall meet any other expenses outside the country and necessary in connexion with the provision of technical assistance.

Article IV

1. In the planning and execution of projects for which Supplementary Agreements are made pursuant to this Agreement the Government shall provide for the personnel, equipment, supplies and facilities, as specified in each Supplementary Agreement and assumes responsibility for such part of the costs of the technical assistance furnished by the Organization under this Agreement as can be paid for in local currency or otherwise to the following extent :

- (a) Provision of lodging for staff employed on projects in the recipient country, provided that in exceptional circumstances, and subject to the prior agreement of the Director-General of the Organization (or, in the case of projects financed from the Special Account for the expanded programme of technical assistance for economic development, the prior agreement of the Technical Assistance Board), provision of lodging may not be required;
- (b) The cost of travel, including a per diem allowance, for the international personnel while travelling on official business within the country away from their duty station;
- (c) The cost of official telephone, telegraph, postal and other means of communication;
- (d) Cost of medical care and hospitalization for the international personnel in the country;
- (e) Appropriate offices, expendable office material and furniture, interpreters' and translators' services as may be necessary, including secretarial assistance;
- (f) Taxes or other duties or levies collected by the Government not covered by the privileges and immunities under Article V;
- (g) Any other expenses, services or facilities mutually agreed on.

2. In lieu of making payment in accordance with paragraph (1) above, the Government may give supplies and services in kind, to the extent that may be agreed upon between the Government and the Organization.

3. In appropriate cases, the Government shall also provide such land, labour, equipment or property as may be required, to be determined as the need arises, in agreement with the Organization.

Article V

The Government, having acceded to the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies,¹ shall accord to the Organization, its personnel, property and assets in connexion with the performance of this Agreement and any Supplementary Agreement hereto, all the privileges and immunities normally accorded under the provisions of that Convention.

Article VI

(a) This Agreement and any Supplementary Agreement hereto may be modified by mutual consent of the Government and the Organization.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated by either party upon written notice to the other and shall terminate sixty days from the receipt of such notice. Termination of this Agreement shall constitute termination of any Supplementary Agreement hereto. Any such Supplementary Agreement may also be separately terminated on like notice.

(c) Any difference arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement or any Supplementary Agreement hereto which is not otherwise settled by the parties shall be referred to arbitration. In that case each party shall appoint one arbitrator. Any differences that these cannot settle between themselves shall be submitted to a third arbitrator appointed by them to decide without further recourse.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Government and the Organization have signed this Agreement at Geneva on 5 November 1951 in three copies in English.
