No. 1990. BASIC AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND CHILE FOR TECHNICAL CO-OPERATION. SIGNED AT SANTIAGO, ON 16 JANUARY 1951

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Chile

Have agreed as follows :

Article I

ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION

1. The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Chile undertake to cooperate with each other in the interchange of technical knowledge and skills and in related activities designed to contribute to the balanced and integrated development of the economic resources and productive capacities of Chile. Particular technical cooperation programs and projects, and salaries and remuneration, ordinary and extraordinary, that may be established, will be subject to the provisions of such separate written agreements or understandings as may later be reached by the duly designated representatives of Chile and the Technical Cooperation Administration of the United States of America, or by other persons, agencies or organizations designated by the governments.

2. The Government of the Republic of Chile through its duly designated representatives in cooperation with representatives of the Technical Cooperation Administration, or other duly designated representatives of the United States of America, and representatives of appropriate international organizations will endeavor to coordinate and integrate all technical cooperation programs being carried on in Chile.

3. The Government of the Republic of Chile will cooperate in the mutual exchange of technical knowledge and skills with other countries participating in technical cooperation programs associated with that carried on under this Agreement.

4. The Government of the Republic of Chile will endeavor to make effective use of the results of technical projects carried on in Chile in cooperation with the United States of America.

¹ Came into force on 27 July 1951 by legislative approval by the Republic of Chile, in accordance with article V (1).

5. The two governments will, upon the request of either of them, consult with regard to any matter relating to the application of this Agreement to project agreements heretofore or hereafter concluded between them, or to operations or arrangements carried out pursuant to such agreements.

Article II

INFORMATION AND PUBLICITY

1. The Government of the Republic of Chile will communicate to the Government of the United States of America in a form and at intervals to be mutually agreed upon :

- a.* Information concerning projects, programs, measures and operations carried on under this Agreement including a statement of the use of funds, materials, equipment and services provided thereunder;
- b.* Information regarding technical assistance which has been or is being requested of other countries or of international organizations.

2. Not less frequently than once a year, the Governments of the United States of America and the Republic of Chile will make public in their respective countries periodic reports on the technical cooperation programs carried on pursuant to this Agreement. Such reports shall include information as to the use of funds, materials, equipment and services.

3. The Governments of the United States of America and the Republic of Chile will endeavor to give full publicity to the objectives and progress of the technical cooperation program carried on under this Agreement.

Article III

PROGRAM AND PROJECT AGREEMENTS

1. The program and project agreements referred to in Article I, Paragraph 1 above, will include provisions relating to policies, administrative procedures, the disbursement of and accounting for funds, the contribution of each party to the cost of the program or project, and the furnishing of detailed information of the character set forth in Article II, Paragraph 1 above.

2. Any funds, materials and equipment introduced into Chile by the Government of the United States of America pursuant to such program and project agreements shall be exempt from duties, taxes, charges, investment or deposit requirements and currency controls.

3. The Government of the Republic of Chile agrees to bear a fair share of the cost of technical cooperation programs and projects.

Article IV

PERSONNEL

All employees of the Government of the United States of America assigned to duties in Chile in connection with cooperative technical assistance programs and projects and accompanying members of their families shall be exempt from all Chilean income taxes and social security taxes with respect to income upon which they are obligated to pay income or social security taxes to the Government of the United States of America. Such employees and accompanying members of their families shall receive the same treatment with respect to exemptions from customs and import duties on personal effects, equipment and supplies imported into Chile for their own use, as is accorded by the Government of the Republic of Chile to diplomatic personnel of the United States Embassy in Santiago.

Article V

ENTRY INTO FORCE, AMENDMENT, DURATION

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the day on which it is signed, except that those provisions which, under the Constitution of the Republic of Chile, require legislative approval, shall enter into force on the date of such approval. It shall remain in force until three months after either government shall have given notice in writing to the other of intention to terminate the Agreement.

2. If, during the life of this Agreement, either government should consider that there should be an amendment thereof, it shall so notify the other government in writing and the two governments shall thereupon consult with a view to agreeing upon the amendment.

3. Subsidiary project and other agreements and arrangements which may be concluded may remain in force beyond any termination of this Agreement, in accordance with such arrangements as the two governments may make.

4. This Agreement is complementary to and does not supersede existing agreements between the two governments except insofar as other agreements are inconsistent herewith.

DONE in duplicate, in the English and Spanish languages, at Santiago this sixteenth day of January, 1951.
