inversiones productivas en empresas e iniciativas de ésta finalidad, me es grato proponer a la consideración de vuestro Gobierno, tan propicio a favorecer el desarrollo económico de estos países latino-americanos, mediante la contribución de su rica experiencia y capacidad técnica, lo siguiente:

(1) El establecimiento de una Comisión Mixta para el estudio de los problemas económicos, integrada por igual número de miembros nombrados por el Gobierno del Paraguay y el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos de América.—

(2) La Comisión Mixta cooperará al propósito de obtener ayuda técnica conforme a los recursos y posibilidades del Paraguay, dando oportunidad a una mutua y ventajosa utilización de los conocimientos técnicos, así como de las habilidades e inversiones extranjeras.—

(3) Establecimiento de un plan de acción que permita la introducción, desarrollo y aplicación de las habilidades técnicas, y el establecimiento y utilización efectiva del capital, haciendo que se cumpla tales planes por medio de medidas apropiadas adoptadas conjuntamente por mi país y los Estados Unidos de América.—

En la seguridad de que el Gobierno de Vuestra Señoría ha de prestar su favorable acogida al propósito enunciado, me complazco en saludarle con mi consideración distinguida.—

investments in enterprises and undertakings for such purpose, I have the honor to propose the following for the consideration of your Government, which is so disposed to favor the economic development of the countries of Latin America by contributions from its rich experience and technical ability:

(1) The establishment of a Joint Commission for the study of economic problems, composed of an equal number of members appointed by the Government of Paraguay and the Government of the United States of America.

(2) The Joint Commission will cooperate in the objective of obtaining technical assistance in accordance with Paraguay's resources and possibilities, giving opportunity for a mutual and advantageous utilization of technical knowledge, as well as foreign skills and investments.

(3) Preparation of a plan of action that will permit the introduction, development, and application of technical skills, and the establishment and effective utilization of capital, such plans to be put into effect through appropriate measures adopted jointly by my country and the United States of America.

Certain that your Government will give favorable attention to the above-mentioned proposal, I have the honor to assure you of my distinguished consideration.

The American Chargé d'Affaires ad interim to the Paraguayan Minister of Foreign Relations

Asunción, November 22, 1950

No. 20

Excellency :

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that my Government has instructed me to accept Your Excellency's proposal to create a Joint Commission for Economic Development to prepare and to transmit to our respective Governments the studies and recommendations with respect to the economic problems of Paraguay as outlined in Your Excellency's note No. 963 of November 9, 1950.

My Government understands that the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Paraguay will each pay the salaries, the per diem, and the living allowances of its own personnel associated with the Joint Commission, and that the Joint Commission will agree on a fair division of such other costs as may arise.

It is understood by my Government that this exchange of notes, namely, Your Excellency's No. 963, this my reply, and Your Excellency's response indicating concurrence with the latter, constitute an agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Paraguay for the establishment of a Joint Commission for Economic Development, as envisaged in the Act for International Development which is published in Public Law 535 of the 81st Congress of the United States of America.¹

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

Archibald R. RANDOLPH
Chargé d'Affaires ad interim
