No. 2391. EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND DENMARK RELATING TO REDISTRIBUTABLE AND EXCESS MUTUAL DEFENSE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM PROPERTY. COPENHAGEN, 16 NOVEMBER 1951 AND 28 APRIL 1952

I

The American Embassy to the Danish Ministry for Foreign Affairs

MEMORANDUM

The Embassy has been instructed by the Department of State to present to the Government of Denmark the following proposed text of an agreement concerning redistributable and excess Mutual Defense Assistance Program property.

1. The Government of Denmark agrees to report to the United States Military Assistance Advisory Group such equipment and material furnished under end item programs as are no longer required in the furtherance of its Mutual Defense Assistance Program.
2. The United States Government may accept title to such equipment and material for transfer to a third country, or for such other disposition as may be made by the United States Government.
3. When title is accepted by the United States Government, such equipment and material will be delivered free alongside ship in case ocean shipment is required, or delivered free on board inland carrier at a shipping point designated by the MAAG in the event ocean shipping is not required.
4. Such property reported no longer required in the Mutual Defense Assistance Program of the Government of Denmark and not accepted by the Government of the United States for redistribution or return will be disposed of as agreed between the Governments of Denmark and the United States.

¹ Came into force on 28 April 1952 by the exchange of the said notes.

5. Any salvage and scrap containing appreciable quantities of recoverable strategic or critical material, as indicated on a Mutual Defense Assistance Program Salvage List to be communicated to the Government of Denmark from time to time by the United States, shall become the property of the United States for disposition. Other salvage and scrap, when disposed of by Denmark will be used to support the defense effort of Denmark or other countries to whom military assistance is being furnished by the United States.

The first list of recoverable strategic and critical scrap materials desired for return to the United States is enclosed.
