No. 3471. AGREEMENT<sup>1</sup> BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND, AUSTRALIA AND INDIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THAILAND REGARDING WAR GRAVES. SIGNED AT BANGKOK, ON 24 AUGUST 1954

---

The Governments of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Australia and India (hereinafter referred to as "the Commonwealth countries") of the one part and the Government of Thailand of the other part,

Desiring that places of burial in Thai territory of members of the Armed Forces of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, India and Pakistan who have fallen in the War of 1939-1945 (hereinafter referred to as "War Cemeteries" or "War Graves" as appropriate) and places of burial or commemoration of members of the Armed Forces of Thailand in the territories of the Commonwealth countries who have fallen in the same war, should be protected from risk of disturbance and assured of respect and care, have decided to conclude an Agreement for the purposes above mentioned and have accordingly agreed as follows :

Article 1

The Government of Thailand undertake to acquire at their own cost and hold in perpetuity the lands necessary for and the sites already occupied by the War Cemeteries. The areas concerned are at Kanchanaburi (17.289 rai) and Chungkai (24.18 rai), scale maps of which are annexed to this Agreement.<sup>2</sup> The Government of Thailand agree to allow the free use of these lands, by the agency referred to in the following article, for the purposes of laying out, constructing and maintaining thereon permanent War Cemeteries of the War of 1939-1945 and for so long as such uses thereof are continued in accordance with the present Agreement.

Article 2

The Government of Thailand take note that the Governments of the Commonwealth countries have appointed the Imperial War Graves Commission incorporated by Royal Charter of the 21st of May, 1917 (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission"), as their agency to exercise in their behalf the rights and privileges accorded by the present Agreement.

Article 3

If any request from a source other than the Commission for permission to exhume any body from the War Cemeteries is received by the Government of Thailand, or if for any reason the Government of Thailand desire exhumation of bodies from the War Cemeteries, such exhumation shall not take place without prior consultation with, and the agreement of, the Commission.

Article 4

The Commission is authorised to enclose the War Cemeteries, to lay them out according to a scheme approved by the Commission, to erect in them sepulchral monuments or other suitable structures, to make plantations in them, to construct and maintain water installations, to designate from time to time the custodians or persons (who may be British subjects) to take charge of them and (subject to the approval of the competent authority of the Government of Thailand) to enact regulations governing visits to and the internal control of the same.

Article 5

(1) The Commission shall be represented in Thailand by a Committee composed of not more than two officials representative of the Governments of the Commonwealth countries designated by the Commission and not more than two officials of the Public Administrative Services of the Government of Thailand designated by the said Government.

(2) The function of this Committee shall be to act as an official channel between the Commission and the Thai authorities on all matters concerning the War Cemeteries and Graves or relating to the responsibilities and functions of the Commission in Thailand, as well as to advise and assist the Commission in carrying out the measures the latter may deem necessary in connexion with the War Cemeteries and Graves.

Article 6

Rights similar to those set forth in this Agreement shall, on the request of the Government of Thailand, be accorded reciprocally to that Government if and in so far as it may decide to construct, embellish or maintain the places of burial or commemoration of members of the Forces of Thailand fallen in the War of 1939-1945 situated in the territories of the Governments of the Commonwealth countries.

Article 7

This Agreement shall come into force on the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.

DONE at Bangkok on the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four, in duplicate copies, one of which shall be deposited with the Government of Thailand and the other with the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The latter shall communicate certified copies to the Governments of Australia and India.

BRITISH EMBASSY

Bangkok, August 24, 1954

Monsieur le Ministre,

With reference to the Agreement concluded to-day between the Governments of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Australia and India on the one hand and the Government of Thailand on the other hand regarding War Graves,<sup>1</sup> I have the honour upon instructions from the Government of the United Kingdom and with the concurrence of the Governments of Australia and India, to propose that the agency appointed by the Commonwealth countries to exercise the rights and privileges of the Agreement (The Imperial War Graves

Commission) shall be permitted to import, free of duty, such articles and materials as are considered necessary for the marking, maintenance or construction of the cemeteries, graves and memorials referred to in the Agreement and which shall have been specified and notified to the Royal Thai Government within one year of the date of this Note.

If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to the Royal Thai Government, I have the honour to suggest that the present Note and your Excellency's reply to that effect shall be regarded as placing formally on record the Agreement reached between the Governments of the Commonwealth countries and the Royal Thai Government in regard to this matter.

I have, &c.
