No. 3862. AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND PERU REGARDING SURPLUS AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES. SIGNED AT LIMA, ON 7 MAY 1956

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Perú :

Recognizing the desirability of expanding trade in agricultural commodities between their two countries and with other friendly nations in a manner which would not displace usual marketings of the United States in these commodities or unduly disrupt world prices of agricultural commodities;

Considering that the purchase for soles of surplus agricultural commodities produced in the United States will assist in achieving such an expansion of trade;

Considering that the soles accruing from such purchases will be utilized in a manner beneficial to both countries;

Desiring to set forth the understandings which will govern the sales of surplus agricultural commodities to Perú pursuant to Title I of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended, and the measures which the two Governments will take individually and collectively in furthering the expansion of trade in such commodities;

Have agreed as follows ;

Article I

SALES FOR SOLES

1. Subject to the issuance and acceptance of purchase authorizations referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the Government of the United States of America undertakes to finance on or before June 30, 1956, the sale for soles of certain agricultural commodities determined to be surplus pursuant to the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended, to the Government of Perú.
2. The United States Government will issue, within the terms of this Agreement, purchase authorizations which shall include provisions relating to the sale and delivery of commodities, the time and circumstances of deposit of the soles accruing from such sales and other relevant matters, and which shall be subject to acceptance by the Government of Perú. Certain commodities and amounts, with respect to which tentative agreement has been reached by the two Governments, are listed in paragraph 3 of this Article.

3. The United States Government undertakes to finance the sale to Perú of the following commodities, in the values indicated, during the United States fiscal year 1956, under the terms of Title I of the said Act and of this Agreement :

Commodity	Value (Millions of dollars)
Wheat	2.47
Ocean transportation (est.)	0.31
	TOTAL 2.78

Article II

USES OF SOLES

1. The two Governments agree that the soles accruing to the Government of the United States of America as a consequence of sales made pursuant to this Agreement will be used by the Government of the United States for the following purposes in the amounts shown :

- (a) For purposes pursuant to section 104 (a), (c), (f) and (h) of the Act : the sol equivalent of $780,000.
- (b) For loans to the Government of Perú to promote the economic development of Perú under section 104 (g) of the Act; the sol equivalent of $2,000,000 subject to supplemental agreement between the two Governments.

2. The soles accruing under this Agreement shall be expended by the Government of the United States for the purposes stated in paragraph 1 of this Article, in such manner and order of priority as the Government of the United States shall determine.

Article III

DEPOSITS OF SOLES

1. The amount of soles to be deposited to the account of the United States shall be the dollar sales value of the commodities reimbursed or financed by the Government of the United States converted into soles at the rate of exchange for U.S. dollars generally applicable to import transactions (excluding imports granted a preferential rate) on the dates of dollar disbursement by the United States or U.S. banks on behalf of the United States. Such dollar sales value shall include ocean freight and handling reimbursed or financed by the Government of the United States, except that it shall not include any extra cost of ocean freight resulting from a United States requirement that the commodities be transported on United States flag vessels.

Article IV

GENERAL UNDERTAKINGS

1. The Government of Perú agrees that it will take all possible measures to prevent the resale or transshipment to other countries, or use for other than domestic purposes, (except where such resale, transshipment or use is specifically approved by the Government of the United States) of surplus agricultural commodities purchased pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended, and to assure that its purchase of such commodities does not result in increased availability of these or like commodities to nations unfriendly to the United States.
2. The two Governments agree that they will take reasonable precautions to assure that all sales of surplus agricultural commodities pursuant to the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended, will not unduly disrupt world prices of agricultural commodities, displace usual marketings of the United States in these commodities, or materially impair trade relations among the countries of the free world.
3. In carrying out this agreement the two Governments will seek to assure conditions of commerce permitting private traders to function effectively and will use their best endeavors to develop and expand continuous market demand for agricultural commodities.
4. The Government of Perú agrees to furnish, upon request of the Government of the United States, information on the progress of the program, particularly with respect to arrivals and condition of commodities and the provisions for the maintenance of usual marketings, and information relating to exports of the same and like commodities.

Article V

CONSULTATION

The two Governments will, upon the request of either of them, consult regarding any matter relating to the application of this Agreement or to the operation of arrangements carried out pursuant to this Agreement.

Article VI
