NOTE VERBALE

Das Auswärtige Amt beeckt sich, auf die Verhandlungen über den Abschluß eines Verwaltungsabkommens über das Schiedsgericht und die Schiedskommission für Güter, Rechte und Interessen in Deutschland Bezug zu nehmen, in deren Verlauf festgestellt wurde, daß die Satzungen des Schiedsgerichts und der Schiedskommission gewissen Mitgliedern dieser Körperschaften zwar diplomatische Vorrechte und Immunitäten, wie sie den Mitgliedern diplomatischer Missionen zustehen, gewähren, aber keine Bestimmungen über die Aufhebung der Immunität gegen gerichtliche Maßnahmen enthalten. Die Vier Un-

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has the honor to refer to the negotiations for the conclusion of an administrative convention on the Arbitration Tribunal and the Arbitral Commission on Property, Rights and Interests in Germany, in the course of which it was established that the charters of the Arbitration Tribunal and the Arbitral Commission, while granting to certain members of these bodies diplomatic privileges and immunities such as are enjoyed by members of diplomatic missions, contain no provisions for waiving immunity from suit and legal process. The four States signatory to the Bonn terzeichnerstaaten der Bonner Verträge haben deshalb vereinbart, daß die Immunität der Mitglieder der Schiedskommission und des Schiedsgerichts gegen gerichtliche Maßnahmen von der Vier Regierungen gegebenenfalls aufgehoben werden kann; dies gilt jedoch nicht für gerichtliche Maßnahmen, die sich auf Handlungen oder Unterlassungen in Ausübung ihres Amtes beziehen.

Das Auswärtige Amt wäre für die Bestätigung dankbar, daß die Amerikanische Regierung diesen Standpunkt teilt.

Gleichlautende Verbalnoten wurden an die Botschaften der Französischen Republik und des Vereinigten Königreichs von Großbritannien und Nordirland gerichtet.

Das Auswärtige Amt benutzt auch diesen Anlaß, die Botschaft der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika seiner ausgezeichneten Hochachtung zu versichern.

Conventions have therefore agreed that the immunity of members of the Arbitral Commission and the Arbitration Tribunal from suit and legal process may be waived in appropriate cases by the four Governments; this shall not apply, however, in respect of suit and legal process in connection with acts or omissions in the exercise of their official duties.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs would be grateful for confirmation that the United States Government agrees with the above viewpoint.

Identical notes verbales have been addressed to the Embassies of the French Republic and of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.<sup>1</sup>

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs takes this opportunity to assure the Embassy of the United States of America of its high consideration.

The American Embassy to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Germany

No. 44

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Germany and, with reference to the Ministry's Note 507-519-450-77 007/56 of July 24, 1956 on the subject of the privileges and immunities of members of the Arbitration Tribunal and the Arbitral Commission on Property, Rights and Interests in Germany, has the honor to inform the Ministry that the Government of the United States of America agrees that the four Governments signatory to the Bonn Conventions may waive the immunity from suit and legal process of members of the Tribunal and members of the Commission in appropriate cases, save in respect of acts performed by such members in the exercise of their official duties.

Copies of this Note are being sent to the Embassies of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of the French Republic.
