No. 4059. CONVENTION¹ BETWEEN THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND THE REPUBLIC OF ARGENTINA CONCERNING CULTURAL EXCHANGES. SIGNED AT BUENOS AIRES, ON 23 MAY 1957

The Government of Israel and the Government of the Argentine Republic, convinced of the importance of cultural exchanges in increasing understanding between peoples, and desiring to strengthen still further the friendly relations between their two countries,

Have resolved to conclude a Convention concerning cultural exchanges between the two countries and to this end have appointed as their representatives:

The President of the State of Israel :

His Excellency, Mr. Arieh Leon Kubovy, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary,

The President of the Republic of Argentina :

His Excellency, Mr. Alfonso de Laferrere, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Religion, who, having communicated to each other their full powers found in good and due form, have agreed as follows :

Article I

The High Contracting Parties undertake to increase and facilitate cultural exchanges between the two countries, and to support projects and plans tending to that end.

Article II

The High Contracting Parties shall encourage and facilitate cultural, scientific, literary and artistic exchanges between their peoples and particularly, on a basis of reciprocity, the joint work of research workers and scientists, the exchange and translation of publications and books and the exchange of artistic reproductions, films and records originating in the two countries.

¹ Came into force on 24 September 1957, upon exchange of the instruments of ratification at Buenos Aires, in accordance with article VII.

Article III

The High Contracting Parties shall encourage and facilitate, by taking all steps within their power to this end, the exchange of teachers, lecturers, authors, students and specialized workers.

Article IV

The High Contracting Parties shall facilitate travel between the two countries by nationals of their respective countries in the categories referred to in the previous article for the purpose of taking part in congresses or in artistic, scientific or sports competitions.

Article V

The High Contracting Parties shall endeavour to promote and facilitate tourism in each country by the nationals of the other country in order to increase their knowledge of each other and to strengthen still further the understanding between the two peoples.

Article VI

The High Contracting Parties shall take the necessary steps to carry out the above provisions and shall reciprocally grant all possible facilities within the framework of the legislation in force in the two countries.

Article VII

This Convention shall be ratified in accordance with the legislation in force in each country and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged between the High Contracting Parties in the city of Buenos Aires as soon as possible, each Party having the right to terminate the Convention by notification to the other Party on not less than twelve months' notice.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the above-mentioned Plenipotentiaries have signed this Convention in two copies, in the Spanish and Hebrew languages, both texts being equally authentic, the Spanish text prevailing in case of doubt, and have thereto affixed their seals at Buenos Aires, on the twenty-third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven.

For the Government
of the State of Israel :
(Signed) Ariele Leon KUBOVY
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary

For the Government
of the Argentine Republic :
(Signed) ALFONSO DE LAFERRERE
Minister of Foreign Affairs and Religion
