THE FOREIGN SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
AMERICAN EMBASSY, ANKARA

May 26, 1955

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to the American Charge's Note No. 780 of January 7, 1952 and to your Note No. 390-1 of the same date, this exchange of notes constituting an agreement between the Government of the United States and the Government of Turkey.² I further have the honor to refer to conversations which have taken place recently between representatives of our two Governments relating to the establishment of mutually satisfactory procedures under paragraph three of the above-mentioned notes respecting the disposition of equipment and materials furnished by the United States under the Act "to provide assistance to Greece and Turkey", as amended. It is understood that the provisions of the said paragraph three and the procedures established below shall also apply to any equipment and materials furnished by the United States under title I, chapter 1 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, or acts amendatory or supplementary thereto, other than equipment or materials sold under the provisions of section 106 of that act. The understandings reached in these conversations concerning the procedures in question are as follows :

1. The Government of Turkey will report to the Joint American Military Mission for Aid to Turkey (JAMMAT) such equipment and materials furnished under military end-item programs as are no longer required in the furtherance of its Mutual Defense Assistance Program.

¹ Came into force on 26 May 1955 by the exchange of the said notes.

² United Nations, Treaty Series, Vol. 179, p. 121.

2. The United States Government may accept title to such equipment and materials for transfer to a third country or for such other disposition as may be made by the United States Government.

3. When title is accepted by the United States Government, such equipment and materials will be delivered free alongside ship in Turkey in case ocean transport is required, or delivered free on board inland carrier at a shipping point in Turkey designated by JAMMAT in the event ocean shipping is not required. The United States Government will accept such equipment and materials in the condition they are at the time of delivery.

4. Such property reported no longer required in the Mutual Defense Assistance Program of the Government of Turkey and not accepted by the Government of the United States for redistribution of return will be disposed of as agreed between the Governments of Turkey and the United States.

5. Any salvage or scrap from property furnished under the Agreement on Aid to Turkey between the United States of America and the Republic of Turkey, signed at Ankara on July 12, 1947,¹ shall be reported to the Government of the United States in accordance with paragraph one above and shall be disposed of in accordance with paragraphs two, three, and four above. Salvage or scrap which is not accepted by the United States will be used to support the defense effort of Turkey.

Confirmation by note that the foregoing procedures meet with the approval of the Turkish Government would be appreciated, such procedures to be applied from the date of your reply.

Please accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
